Welcome to INTO THE WOODS, the premiere production in the 2017-2018 Shorewood High School Drama Season! In January, we will stage the beautiful play FLOWER FOR ALGERNON, based upon the novel by Daniel Keyes. In May, we will be rocking and dancing to HAIRSPRAY. Tonight, it’s our second Stephen Sondheim musical in two years, INTO THE WOODS.

Little Red Ridinghood…Jack and the Beanstalk…Cinderella…The Baker and His Wife…Rapunzel. All wonderful and light-hearted children’s characters, correct? Well, not so fast. The original fairy tales by the brothers Grimm are significantly darker than our more contemporary “Disney-fied” interpretations. “They are tales of right and wrong. There are clear morals to be drawn – deception and dishonesty are punished; honest hard work is rewarded; promises must be honoured; beware of strangers – and especially the forest” (Stephen Evans, Oct. 2014, www.bbc.com). Sondheim has pulled no punches with his musical. Characters from multiple fairy tales collide…in the dark and frightening woods. You might head into intermission feeling rather upbeat about how beautiful and hopeful it is that our protagonists seem to attain all that they have desired. Be certain to stick around for act two to discover if there is a price to pay for such attainment!

The original Broadway production premiered at the Martin Beck theatre in 1987. INTO THE WOODS was nominated for ten Tony Awards and earned three (Best Score, Best Book, and Best Actress). PHANTOM OF THE OPERA edged it out for Best Musical. In 2002, a Broadway revival featured Vanessa Williams as the witch.

Our production includes nearly 75 students (cast, crew, and orchestra). Almost unbelievably, we have staged this production in 4 ½ weeks! It’s been quite an exciting and quick ride!

We are delighted to welcome our new Technical Director to the Shorewood Drama team. Mrs. Kristy Ross-Clausen assumed her new role in late August and is excited to be a part of the wonderful SHS legacy and commitment to excellence! If you’d like to become a financial supporter of Shorewood Drama, please email Mr. King at jking@shorewood.k12.wi.us.

Art, orchestra, band, choir, and drama are alive and well in our district! Thanks for continuing to be a supporter of the arts in Shorewood schools! Enjoy INTO THE WOODS!

Maricella Jaymes
They say for every light on Broadway there is a broken heart, an unrealized dream. And that’s the same in any profession. So you have to want it more than anyone else, and you have to be your own champion, be your own superstar, blaze your own path, say yes to opportunity, follow your instincts, be eager, and passionate, keep learning, nurture your real, lasting relationships, don’t be a jerk, and free your imagination so you can become all that you want to be. -Sutton Foster
