Welcome to Waukesha Choral Union’s first concert of the 2017-2018 Season: Simple Gifts…A Collaboration. This year, we are delighted to present a full season of our Favorite Things. Under the direction of Michael Chapel, we have prepared a program of beloved classics, and enchanting new favorites. The WCU would like to thank New Berlin Eisenhower High School A Cappella Choir, directed by Natalie Baertschy, and the Lake Country Children’s Choir, under the direction of Rachel Beeksma, for adding their beautiful voices in collaboration with ours. As part of the WCU mission, we make every effort to promote the importance of music and music education for our children and young adults. It is wonderful to see these young singers carrying on the beautiful tradition of classical music.

This year we are excited to partner with other non-profit organizations to stress the importance of communities coming together, helping each other, and uniting for the greater good. Partnering with us for the Simple Gifts performance is the Wisconsin Parkinson Association (WPA). We united with WPA to encourage awareness of this disease and the positive impact singing can have on Parkinson’s patients. A portion of the proceeds from tonight’s performance will be donated to this worthy organization to show our support of WPA’s important cause. Thank you for your partnership.

Without the generous support of our audiences, donors, members, and advertisers, as well as, the dedication and talent of our Artistic Director, Michael Chapel, and accompanist Aaron Matthews, this concert series would not be possible. As always, it is a privilege to serve you and the Waukesha Area Community through music.

We hope you will join us for the remaining concerts in our 2017-2018 Season: Our Favorite Things, and we hope that our Favorite Things become your favorite things too!

Sincerely,
Wendy Stippich

Waukesha Choral Union can trace its roots as Waukesha's premier choral society back to 1949 at Carroll College. Over the years, under various names and outstanding artistic directors, WCU has developed a reputation for excellent choral music performances in Southeast Wisconsin. Adhering to our educational mission we have collaborated with Carroll University choirs, with choral ensembles from Waukesha South, Waukesha North, Kettle Moraine, Muskego, and Hartford Union High Schools, and with the Waukesha Children's Chorus. We’re proud to have shared the stage with the Milwaukee Symphony Orchestra, Milwaukee Choristers, Bel Canto Chorus and the Jubilate Chorale. We’ve been featured on WISN-TV’s Season to Celebrate program, and in 2016 we achieved our dream of singing the National Anthem at Miller Park. Our potential is endless!

MISSION

The Waukesha Choral Union will challenge, enrich, and engage its singing members, audiences, and community through the pursuit of excellence and a variety of programming. The WCU mission includes expansion of the effectiveness of its educational efforts throughout Waukesha County through collaboration with schools, area performing artists, and community arts organizations.

Good evening and welcome to our season-opening concert, “Simple Gifts: A Collaboration.”

The Waukesha Choral Union is thrilled to present our annual collaboration concert, featuring the Lake Country Children’s Choir and the New Berlin Eisenhower A Cappella Choir. We are very grateful to Rachel and Natalie for bringing their respective choirs to perform and we are especially grateful to the School District of New Berlin for allowing us the use of their facility.

Let’s look at the math. Like $100 million for our local economy. Or the thousands and thousands of jobs they create. Or the hundreds of thousands of kids who do better in English and science and, you guessed it, math. But there’s also 50—as in the 50 years UPAF has supported the arts in Greater Milwaukee, and the over $300 million we’ve raised to set the stage since 1967. Let’s keep it going.

Three Nocturnes ................................................................. Daniel Elder (b.1986)
1. Ballade to the Moon
2. Star Sonnet
3. Lullaby

“Three Nocturnes” explores the observational and psychological experiences associated with love, nature, darkness, and light. The texts are original and approach the themes in different ways. “Ballade to the Moon” depicts a moonlit walk through woods and fields, while exploring the love felt for the narrator’s surroundings; “Star Sonnet” takes on the poetic form of a Shakespearean sonnet while describing as its subject a single star in the night sky; and “Lullaby” is a simple song of reassurance, as a mother may sing to her child to stave off a fear of darkness and solitude of night. It also serves to comfort those who grieve over loss.

Somewhere in the original harmony must exist, hidden somewhere in the vast wilds.
In Earth’s mighty firmament, in the far reaches of swirling galaxies, in sunshine, in a little flower, in the song of a forest, in the music of a mother’s voice, or in teardrops –
somewhere, immortality endures,
and the original harmony will be found.
How else could it have formed in human hearts – music?

Ching-a-ring Chaw .................................................. Minstrel Song (from Set 2, no.5) arr. Irving Fine

In 1950, composer Benjamin Britten commissioned Aaron Copland to arrange a set of American folk songs that could be performed at Britten’s Music and Arts Festival in Aldeburgh, England. Copland obliged with an arrangement of five traditional American songs scored for voice and piano. In 1952, the songs were published individually, having been transcribed for chorus in various voicings. A second set dates from 1952 and, as Copland wrote, “Everyone seemed to enjoy singing and hearing the first set of folk song settings so much that I decided to arrange a second group of five.”
