SHOW SYNOPSIS

Broadway’s longest-running American musical, CHICAGO is a dazzling and satirical look at fame, justice, and the media machine. Set in 1920’s Chicago and based on real-life murders and trials, CHICAGO follows Roxie Hart, a wannabe vaudevillian star who murders her lover and is arrested, despite her attempts to convince her pushover husband, Amos, to lie for her. In the Cook County Jail, Roxie meets her hero, the famed double-murderess and nightclub performer Velma Kelly. When both acquire the same lawyer, the greedy and lustful superstar, Billy Flynn, tensions come to a head as they compete for the spotlight; though instead of onstage, they’re mugging for the newspaper reporters!

WHAT’S YOUR STORY

DIRECTOR'S NOTE

CHICAGO is billed as “a story of murder, greed, corruption, violence, exploitation, adultery and treachery — all those things we all hold near and dear to our hearts.” Is it any wonder why it’s now the longest-running American musical in Broadway history?

Welcome to CHICAGO!

Many cities, like Chicago, have a violent legacy with things like murder, robberies, and in more recent times, plagues of guns that have destroyed lives. One’s perception of this legacy is shaped by the stories told through the media. A hasty tweet stereotypes and demonizes for personal or political gain. Others use images and words to share the stories of distraught parents, spouses, and children. Historically, the media has covered the paths of justice for celebrities and criminals alike, often glorifying stories to sell papers. In CHICAGO, the characters try to influence the judicial system, media and personal relationships. Some for survival and freedom and others for fame and fortune… No matter how fleeting.

Today we interact in a much different way than the 1920’s era of CHICAGO. But, the use of media manipulation remains the same. The stakes seem greater in this time of a great change and division. Our fear and apprehension is shared by Roxie, Velma and Billy as they navigate their way through troubled times the best way they know how.

CHICAGO is a challenging musical to produce at the high school level. And, perhaps, some may consider it a bold choice for the high school stage. But, I am confident that we have created another exceptional theatre experience for our students and community.

In working on this production, I was reminded that it takes many talented people to put something like this together and make it all work successfully. Thank you to all of our talented students on stage and off, an incredible production team, and the Wauwatosa School District and community for your continued support of excellence on the Tosa West stage!

Enjoy the show!
Mr. Steffan
