Sometimes it seems to me that contemporary comedy would have me learn what I “should” find funny rather than acknowledge what really tickles me. While I really appreciate “dry” humor, and the “glib” retort, and even some political satire, they rarely evoke the “belly laugh” in me.

No, if I had a “quest” in directing comedy, it would be to preserve a simpler time when great comics took the time to know me and what makes me laugh. Give me Martin and Lewis, Laurel and Hardy, Abbot and Costello anytime.

In a recent experiment, I interrupted eight-year-old Lili’s morning viewing of The Cartoon Network with an old video of Three Stooges shorts and, to my amazement and great satisfaction, she laughed her little butt off for more than an hour! And now, she will periodically ask for more, more, more!

The script for ROOM SERVICE was adapted for the screen, starring The Marx Brothers and, often as I’ve seen it, it still makes me laugh out loud. It’s the looks, double-takes, dialects, pratfalls, and exaggerated “reality” that make me groan, giggle, and guffaw. Sooo….I hope you will relish this hot-dog comedy and laugh your buns off. If it moves too fast, just try to ketchup!

Did I just hear a groan?

Michael (Paco) Pocaro

Thanks for the memories, Sunset.

KATE DOMBROWSKI
(Costume Designer) - Through an unexpected event, Kate is back at Sunset in her usual role of costumer. HAL ERICKSON
(Gregory Wagner) - Hal is ecstatic to make his fourth appearance at Sunset, where he has been seen in YOU CAN’T TAKE IT WITH YOU, AND THEN THERE WERE NONE, and the inaugural After Sunset Studio Theater production, PHANTASIES SUCH AS THESE. Let's look at the math. Like $100 million for our local economy. Or the thousands and thousands of jobs they create. Or the 50,000 kids who do better in English and science and, you guessed it, math. But there's also 50–as in the 50 years UPAF has supported the arts in Greater Milwaukee, and the over $300 million we've raised to set the stage since 1967. Let's keep it going.

Support Sunset Playhouse

Donations
Sunset Playhouse is largely supported by the generous gifts of our audience and funding organizations. All donations to Sunset Playhouse are considered tax deductible contributions to a 501(c)3 nonprofit institution. As you know, the cost to produce theater is not covered by ticket sales alone. We would be extremely grateful if you helped us close that financial gap to ensure quality productions and education for years to come. All donors will be acknowledged in our playbills.

Other Financial Support
There are many great opportunities to sponsor a Furlan Auditorium Production, Musical MainStage Concert, A SideNotes Cabaret Show or a bug in a rug Children’s Theater Show. A sponsor is recognized in the show’s program, in the advertisements and eblasts for the show and on Sunset’s website. A sponsor of a Furlan Auditorium Production receives 50 tickets to the show and the use of the Studio Theatre for a pre-show reception.

Please call Nancy Visintainer-Armstrong, Artistic Director, at 262-782-4431x234 to talk about ways that you can support Sunset Playhouse.

Sunset Playhouse Giving Legacy Society

Bequests and other planned gifts have a profound and lasting effect on the artistic quality our patrons have come to expect from our productions and on the future of our theater. If you would like to join us in building that future, please consider naming Sunset Playhouse as a beneficiary of your will or trust, IRA or other retirement plan, life insurance policy, land or property, life income or other planned gift.

Sunset Playhouse has received a very generous donation as our first legacy gift. You, too, can take advantage of this kind and memorable opportunity.

For more information, please contact Sunset Board President Marla Eichmann at meichmann@sunsetplayhouse.com or call 262-782-4431 to set up a time to meet and discuss our Legacy Society.
