WITH DEEPEST GRATITUDE FOR HIS YEARS OF DEDICATION AND SERVICE TO THE STUDENTS AND COMMUNITY OF THE TOSA EAST PLAYERS.
DIRECTOR’S NOTES

This is a play about kids.

More specifically, it is about listening to kids.

So often today we hear “give kids a voice,” and yet we still find our kids marginalized and silenced. I argue that it is not our job to “give” kids a voice, but rather it is our job to give them the tools, the support, and the platform to speak for themselves. Once they do, it is important that we all listen.

Take Ren, for example. Ren leaves his home and his life in Chicago to move to Bomont with his mother because his father left them and they can no longer afford their life there. Upon arrival in Bomont, Ren’s voice, culture, and passion are judged, mocked, and violently silenced. He is constantly demoralized for simply being who he is. He is treated with mistrust, judgment, and hatred, simply because he is different. Once the town really stops and listens to him, their whole world is changed. I invite you tonight to listen as our students express their unique talents through this touching and nostalgic musical.

Among the things I am most grateful for is the dedication of our students. They consistently contribute a great deal of their time and incredible talents that range from impressive organizational and management skills to craftsmanship and artistry to the program. This production would not be the thrill it is without every single student’s contributions.

The fabulous 80’s homage that you will see tonight is made possible by the waves of support from the parents and families of our students as well as the dedicated staff and production team. We greatly appreciate the support from the Tosa East staff: from allowing our students to share their work at the all-school teaser to hanging posters in the hallways and classrooms; and from the production team of volunteers and theatre maniacs- thank you for creating with me. As always, a huge and heartfelt thank you goes out to our amazing FTA for their support of this program and its students.

To our dedicated community: Thank you. We are thrilled that we have such a supportive community with whom we can share our work. Parents: we wouldn’t be here without you. Thank you for sharing your wonderful children with us. I am beyond excited to share their work with you today.

Please feel free to dance.

Simon Arpin, Pit
Simon Arpin is excited to star in his fourth and final show at Tosa East. Since he was just four years old Simon dreamed of being like his favorite drummer, Brandon Kroeger of Nickelback. Now that he has achieved his dream he can pursue his other life goal of becoming the captain of the national frolf team at the 2046 Olympics. His other hobbies include LARPing with his chaps under the pseudonym “Simon Larpin” and studying the life and times of Earl Tupper.

Maggie Collins, Paint Crew Head
When not in the theatre, Maggie can typically be found playing for the Beacon Hills lacrosse team with her best friend Stiles Stilinski, or coming to terms with the fact that she is a ~true~ alpha werewolf. Over the course of her involvement with the Tosa East Players, she has exchanged social awkwardness and naivety for a clear sense of duty in being a burgeoning leader in the supernatural world. She would like to thank everyone who has supported her as co-head of the Paint Department, and the true alpha of the McCall werewolf pack.

Never, ever learn to be silent, Natalie.
We love you!
Mom, Dad, Aidan, Grant & Claire

Jake,
Two thumbs for another great performance.
Love,
Your Family
Clare Conteh-Morgan, Ensemble / Events Crew / Historian Team
Clare is quite excited for her eighth and final show with the Tosa East Players! When she’s not on stage, she can be found doing other creative activities. Clare has enjoyed her time in theatre, but she is also very excited for college next year. She hopes you enjoy the show!

Angie Cox, Ariel Moore
Angie is excited to be in her eighth and final show at Tosa East. Throughout her school career she has accomplished much, including her world record 4,000 juul burp. This powered the school for two weeks. Next year Angie will continue to pursue her dream in renewable energy as one day she hopes to power the whole world. She thanks the people (and coffee) who have helped her reach for her dreams.

Claire Drakulic, Fly Crew Head / Outreach Team / Production Management
UUGGAHHAGGGHSHH CLAIRE’S BEEN WAITING FOR THIS FOR 4 YEARS AND SHE STILL CAN’T THINK OF A BIO BUT MAYBE THAT’S BECAUSE SHE WAS SO BUSY HAVING SUCH A GR8 TIME

Sam Erickson, Paint Crew Head
Footloose is Sam’s last show at Tosa East. He is co-head of the paint crew and helps out with construction.

Fast, affordable and professionally written press releases, articles and website content. Guaranteed.

Our professional, U.S.-based writers will create the content you or your business needs, with top-notch customer service and unlimited revisions, guaranteed. Search Engine Optimized.

Boots, Class & a L’il Sass... That’s what Cowgirls are made of!

❤ you Abby!
Mom, Dad, Tyler & Aniyah
whenever he can. He was involved in Beauty and the Beast, The World Goes Round, Encore! Encore! and Pippin. In addition, he became a crew head his junior year. After graduation, he will be going to Beloit College to study psychology. He is thrilled to have Footloose as the last show of his high school career.

Bayden Fraley, Pit
Top tier gangsta, no doubt.

Simon Hartman-Keiser, Ren McCormack
Simon is so glad to have spent a majority of the past four years in this theatre. He would have it no other way than to literally go out kicking and screaming in Footloose. Simon would also like to thank Ms. Sarner for everything she has done for him. Especially, in a totally completely very unsarcastic way, making him grow out a mullet and be seen in public with it.

Brenden Hicks, Fly / Lights
Although Brenden has been a part of the Tosa East Players for two years, he is glad to have joined but wished he joined sooner. The past two years have been a blast for Brenden, being able to help prepare the shows for our cast. Brenden has helped with almost all of the crews even if it was simply helping them move something. Brenden wishes the best for anyone who continues theatre and will try to do the same after he graduates.

MAGGIE ROSE,
WITH ALL YOUR HARD WORK,
YOUR MANY TALENTS ARE JUST BEGINNING TO BLOSSOM!

LOVE YOU!

Jordan Hill, Ms. Morgan Simpson, Ensemble, Hair & Makeup Crew Head
Jordan has been a part of Players since Curtains her freshman year. She is excited but saddened for her seventh and final performance with the Players, throughout her years in the theatre Jordan has bounced back and forth between being on cast and Hair and Makeup Crew Head. She is glad she gets to spend her last show on stage as well as helping out backstage.

Maxwell Huenink, Lights Crew Head
Max is sad to see his eighth and final show with the Tosa East Players come to an end. He has enjoyed working with everyone, and although he has kept all the things he has done in order, he still hasn’t been able to find that robot he made. Max’s proudest moment was when he brought the infamous ladder, Satan, back from the depths of the tunnel. Satan now resides in his rightful place by the newly-cleaned fly rail. Lastly, Max wants to tell everyone “Hey now, you’re an All Star” and don’t forget to keep shining brightly.

Emma Hudson-Mairet, Front of House Manager / Marketing Cohead / Paint / Playbill Crew Head
Emma has very much enjoyed her varying roles over the years in Tosa East Players productions. She cannot quite believe that this is her last show and would like to thank everyone who worked on this production. Emma would also like to thank you for actually reading this far into her playbill.

Maggie Kelnhofer, Vi Moore / Hair & Makeup
It is a childhood dream come true for Maggie to be performing in her sixth and final show with the Tosa East Players! In her four years here, she has made sure to take the time to experience being both onstage and offstage, and has thoroughly enjoyed every second of it! Maggie could not be more grateful to the Tosa East Players for helping her come out of her shell over the past four years, and she is extremely excited to see what the future holds for her!

Emma Kessler, Urleen / Historian Team
Emma Kessler feels really weird about the fact that this is her last performance on the Tosa East stage. However, it does make her feel better that at least she will go out rocking big hair and shoulder pads. She would like to sincerely thank everyone in the Tosa East Players for making the past four years an incredible, memorable experience. Enjoy the show!

Victoria Kurzynski, Hair & Makeup Crew Head
This is Victoria’s last show. She has enjoyed her last four years in the theater program. She encourages others to join as she reflects on her experiences. Cut loose and enjoy the show.

Maddy LaBissoniere, Hair & Makeup / Playbill
Maddy LaBissoniere hopes you appreciate everyone’s beautiful hair and makeup, as she believes ‘80s hair is funny and should be brought back.

Josh Lee, Marketing Crew Head / Paint
Josh Lee is a heterogeneous mixture of both happiness and deep depression because of the end of his Tosa East theatre experience. He has had the privilege to watch the program develop and grow over the last two years, and see some outstanding talent come and go, as well as play in multiple pits, and work side by side with the incredible Emma Hudson-Mairet, Maggie Collins, and Sam Erickson. He thanks you for your support of the program, and wishes the best to the years to come.

Erin O’Brien, Betty Blast, Officer Jim Morrill, Mr. Dillingham
Erin is extremely excited to be a senior at Beacon Hills High, and to play Betty Blast/Cop/Mr. Dillingham in Tosa East Players’ Production of Footloose. When not sitting on the bench at lacrosse games, she is fighting canima, druids and scratchy toe wolves with her werewolf best friend, Scott McCall. Erin would like to thank her dad, Sheriff Stilinski for supporting her acting career and for paying for her 1980 Cj-5 Jeep. Overall, she is humbled to be a part of this amazing process, and is thankful to not be benched in all her extracurricular activities.

Lizzie Porter, Cowboy Bobbie, Krista K. Layfield, Hair & Makeup
The assumption that Lizzie Freaking Porter could be accurately summarized in less than 100 words is frankly insulting. Her dynamic, layered, and extremely interesting personality requires intense and thorough description. Please refer to her freshly published, brief collection of poems “Trader Joe’s and Other Loves” for more info. thx.

Emmy Repetti, Paint
This is Emmy’s fourth and final year with the Tosa East Players. Throughout her high school career, Emmy has participated in both cast and crew. Though she is sad her time with the Tosa East Players is coming to an end, she is excited to make more time in her life for Netflix. Much love to Cast, Crew, Pit of Footloose!

Tessa Russ, Tracy
Tessa is thrilled to be a part of the dance corps and to take on the role of the mean girl-inspired cheerleader, Tracy, in her second and final performance at Tosa East. Thanks so much to family and friends for being such a wonderful support.

Abby Schmitt, Lights
Abby Schmitt is looking forward to living out the remainder of her days up in CATS.

Maggie! Sporting the side pony from the beginning

"God is love, follow Him and never roam!"

We love you...
-Dad, Mom, Ricky, George & Krysta
Ian Schmitt-Ernst, Fly Crew Head
Ian Schmitt-Ernst is almost done with Tosa East Theatre. He would like to thank the 40 seat, Claire Drakulic, Leland Hogan, his brother, his dog, his gecko, and his parents. Ian would also like to thank Emma Hudson-Mairet for doing such a kick-butt job with the playbill you are reading.

Vince Teofilo,
Willard Hewitt
Vince stumbled into theatre for Encore! Encore! as a member of the pit, and hasn’t looked back since. Being welcomed into the theatre community has been a truly wonderful experience. Being in his final high school show, Vince is proud to say he has been a part of theatre in high school. Beyond theatre and high school, Vince plans to go to college somewhere, and will maybe consider doing theatre in college. Vince has been very grateful for the opportunity to be a part of the theatre program at Tosa East, and the memories will never fade. Thanks to everyone.

Demetra Tselentis,
Lights
Demetra has loved her time in the theatre. She’s considering failing AP Calculus so she can stay in spotlight.

Can’t wait to see you both “kick up your heels” in Footloose! So proud of all your hard work. Love,
Mom
