FROM THE OAC DIRECTOR...

3rd Annual OAC Gala...

Be watching your mail or check out the info on our web site. The 3rd annual OAC Gala will be held this spring on Saturday, April 21, 2018 at La Belle Golf Club. A new venue with more room, great parking and excellent dinners by the chef. This year’s theme is Swing in to Spring and will feature a great swing band Lake Country Swing. And former TV anchor Mike Miller will be our emcee.

Auction items will feature several state-wide destination trips, a new raffle, four great live auction items, many great silent auction packages and our annual OAC fund-an-items list of needed equipment for the OAC. There will be entertainment featuring dancers from Fred Astaire Dance Studio and there will be an opportunity for a “swing” dance lesson. The orchestra will also remain after the evening concludes for dancing and a night cap.

The 2018-19 season will be premiered at the gala event!

It’s a lot fun! Come join us. Proceeds go to the OAC Building Preservation Fund to help keep our facility updated and looking great.

2018-19 Season...

Speaking of the new season, just a reminder that we will be sending out the new season brochures on May 1 with tickets going on sale Monday, May 14 at 9:00 am. We will be offering our special early bird offer to save big money on any combination of tickets you order. The more you buy the more you save. The early bird is good for two weeks from May 14 – 25. Tickets can only be purchased in-person at the box office during regular box office hours. We have another great season ready to go!

As always, thank you so much for your continued support.

Tallymoore

Saturday, March 17, 2018 – 7:30 p.m.

There will be a 15 minute intermission

“Tallymoore is a dynamic, young Celtic band combining top notch musicianship with distinctive singers able to unite their voices to create unique harmonies, as best realized on their latest CD, Drive. Seeing them live offers the added bonus of phenomenal showmanship and an ability to make classic songs their own, setting them apart as innovative and seasoned interpreters of the best in Celtic music today.”

-Michael Lange, President & Director – Mad Gael Productions

www.tallymoore.com
Established in 2012, Tallymoore is a contemporary Irish Folk band from Milwaukee performing a range of Irish and Scottish folk tunes, ballads, reels and classic pub songs. The group also incorporates acoustic and vocal material from broader Celtic, traditional country, bluegrass and Americana sources. Tallymoore aims to breathe new life into Irish folk favorites. They are best known for their strong vocals and complex harmonic treatments of tunes, along with rich instrumentation. Their innovative arrangements of classic tunes have made them a favorite among festival goers. Their vocal harmony blend, distinctive arrangements, and strong musicianship have distinguished them on the Irish music scene.

BIOGRAPHIES

Erin Hoffman, Violin
Erin has been playing violin since childhood. She studied Violin Performance and Music Education at Wichita State University and has performed in a variety of ensembles, including the Wichita Grand Opera, the Northwest Symphony Orchestra, the Fairfax Chamber Players, and several free-lance small ensembles.

Erin has been an orchestra teacher, coach and private violin teacher for several years, and is currently teaching Elementary strings in Fairfax County, Virginia. Erin first took an interest in Irish music when she met Matt and Sean in 2012.

Sean Ward, Mandolin and Vocals
Sean Ward, one of the co-founders of Tallymoore, brings his talents as a singer and multi-instrumentalist to the group. In addition to playing the mandolin, he plays the guitar and the bodhran as well as a wide range of other instruments.

Sean is one of the principal vocalists in Tallymoore, and is featured on many of the tracks of Tallymoore’s latest CD, “Drive.” His voice has been described as “a sparkling clear tenor…distinctive in character and refreshing in its energy and earnestness.”

His affinity for Irish folk music started at the age of 8 when he attended the Tommy Makem International Festival of Song in Armagh, Ireland. Sean is passionate about preserving the Irish folk-singing tradition and keeping alive the spirit of the important contributors to that history. He has been lucky to have shared the stage with many of these well-known folk singers, including Tommy Makem, Tom Sweeney and Eugene Bryne. A central focus for Sean is mining the vast repertoire of Irish folk songs, and enabling Tallymoore to present compelling new arrangements of these songs, while preserving their integrity.

Matt Voell, Piano and Vocals
The vision for Tallymoore began in partnership with Sean Ward in 2010. Matt and Sean’s friendship is rooted in their involvement in Milwaukee Irish Fest and their participation in the Irish Fest Youth Choir. When they “aged-out” of the choir, they committed to forming a singing group built on their mutual love for Irish folk songs and multipart harmony. After many jam sessions, brainstorming meetings and dedicated planning, Tallymoore was born. The vision for Tallymoore was to develop a fully-engaging and energetic performing band centered around and driven by the harmonies that Sean and Matt had created over their years of singing together. Matt is proud to see Tallymoore continuing to advance and with the 2016 release of “Drive,” moving in a determined fashion to realize the original vision contemplated for the group.

Matt studied technical theater with an emphasis in lighting design at Columbia College, Chicago. Matt is formally trained in piano and also plays guitar and occasionally percussion. While at Columbia he continued his studies on piano and had significant opportunities for vocal performance. Matt participated in a number of vocal groups and ensembles at Columbia, where he was afforded close exposure to top-level visiting artists-in-residence at the college. Through these programs, Matt had the privilege of studying and performing with numerous well-known performers—some of the best names in Jazz, Blues and Pop. Matt continues to undertake many freelance lighting and set design projects at local theaters and venues. On a personal note, Matt enjoys cooking fun recipes from Pinterest—he is waiting for the right opportunity to test out his recipes on his Tallymoore bandmates!

Dave Kennedy,
Guitar and Vocals

Dave embarked on a mission to join Tallymoore after hearing them for the first time at a 2012 Christmas Concert at the Irish Fest Center in Milwaukee. He realized then and there that their talent was undeniable and, ultimately, irresistible. Asked to handicap his odds of joining the group at the time, he reckoned that it certainly was “a long shot,” noting that “there was really nothing I could add that they did not already have in great supply…. “ After garnering some interest from the group with his arrangement of Dougie McLean’s “Caledonia,” Dave was invited to play on several tracks of the group’s 2013 CD, “Tallymoore” and began sitting in during live performances. He was drawn in by the group’s energy, “There is a real excitement and momentum with this group that is fun to be a part of…. Sometimes persistence pays off: after driving the tour bus, carrying gear and doing laundry for a few months, he was elevated to full member status!

Dave studied guitar at The Wisconsin Conservatory of Music with Mike Sullivan. He has played and sung with numerous groups in the Milwaukee area, including; The 66th Street Band, The 17th Avenue Band and The Crawford Jazz Band. Currently, he is also a member of The Differentials (www.thedifferentialsband.com), a group that plays the golden hits of the 60s and 70s. Dave plays acoustic guitar and, occasionally, electric guitar with Tallymoore. He also adds vocal harmonies, “Tallymoore is blessed with incredible vocal talent with Sean and Matt—it is a real treat to be able to sing with them.” Dave particularly enjoys working on Tallymoore’s modified arrangements and adaptations of classic Irish folk tunes.
