Welcome to HAIRSPRAY, the final production in the 2017-2018 Shorewood High School Drama Season! In October, we opened with the Sondheim classic INTO THE WOODS. In the winter, we tackled the challenging drama FLOWERS FOR ALGERNON, based upon the novel by Daniel Keyes. And tonight…get ready for a rollicking romp through 1962 Baltimore with a fun, but important message of love and integration!

This is the second time that I have had the privilege of directing this beautiful musical. The first was in 2012 at my last high school in Indianapolis. It was a smash hit there, just as I am sure it will be for the Shorewood community this season. The students have enjoyed the challenges that come with a non-stop dance musical (thank you Mr. Ryan Cappleman). We haven’t truly done a musical with this much choreograph since Green Day’s American Idiot several years ago. Additionally, I know Mr. Brad Brist’s student technicians have enjoyed designing and building the massive set you’ll see tonight. Ms. Sara Van Loon and her costume students have created a colorful palette of 1960’s costumes. Mr. Will Obst and Mr. Jack Rutter have carefully crafted the music with the pit orchestra and vocalists. Marc Shaiman’s score will be alive tonight! Finally, thanks to Mrs. Amanda Hull and Mr. and Mrs. Paul and Kat Kneevers for their continued tireless work on properties and sound design and execution. Your amazing work with our students will become abundantly clear when the curtain rises. On behalf of the entire artistic staff, we hope you are inspired and entertained by this uplifting and inclusive story!

The original Broadway production premiered in August 2022 at the Neil Simon Theatre, where it ran for 2,642 performances. HAIRSPRAY was nominated for 13 Tony Awards and won eight, including Best Musical! The stage musical is based upon the 1988 John Waters non-musical film of the same name. In 2007, the film musical version of HAIRSPRAY premiered.

Our production includes over 100 students (cast, crew, costumes, and orchestra), nearly 15% of the student body! We hypothesized that this title would attract a slew of new students to the Drama program and we are delighted that this has become a reality!

As this year’s theatrical season draws to a close, I would like to thank the countless volunteers who have run errands, cooked, sewn, hammered, typed, organized, and donated their time and energy to making us successful. We couldn’t have done it without you. The Drama Awards Banquet will be Friday, June 1 at 6:00 p.m. The parents and families of all students who participated in one or more of this year’s shows are welcome and encouraged to attend. More details to come. Please plan to attend this fun celebration of the year’s accomplishments!

Art, orchestra, band, choir, and drama are alive and well in our public school district! Thanks for continuing to be a supporter of the arts in Shorewood! Enjoy HAIRSPRAY!
