FROM THE PRESIDENT OF THE BOARD

A hearty welcome to you from all of us at SummerStage of Delafield. We are elated that you are joining us at our idyllic stage nestled in the heart of Lapham Peak, where we have been steadily growing since 2007.

Personally, it is one of my favorite places to spend a summer evening, and I am happy to share it with anyone else who wants to be treated to both exceptional artistic endeavors and the sublime beauty of the Kettle Moraine. As you take some time to relax, have a tasty picnic, and take in a show, it is my hope that you will also appreciate the sunset, the soft breeze, the scent of pine, the chorus of birds, the dancing fireflies, and the starry skies.

Meanwhile, I will take the opportunity to express gratitude for the many hearts and hands who touch SummerStage. Each performance is the culmination of many hours of preparation by diligent performers, directors, and crew members. Each event is sustained by energetic volunteers and staff who assure you are greeted, offered a shuttle to and from the parking lot, have concessions and swag available for purchase, and generally have a great SummerStage experience. Each season is the product of an indefatigable Artistic Director, Managing Director, Board of Directors, Advisory Board, and Committee Members who whole-heartedly share their time and expertise.

Each moment of this is made possible by our magnanimous donors, sponsors, and partners, whose generosity supports our mission to provide unique ways to present performing and visual arts experiences, arts educational experiences, and community outreach programs.

Last and certainly not least, I thank you, our audience, to whom we offer our talents for your enjoyment at SummerStage.

FROM THE ARTISTIC DIRECTOR

Welcome to our 2018 season - Uncovering Truth.

It seems like everywhere we turn today, we are confronted by arguments over what is true and what is false... dare I say, “fake news.”

Each of the plays this summer examines characters wrestling with what they believe to be the truth, only to find that it is not necessarily what they were expecting. For some, this is for the better. For others, not so much.

The timeliness of these plays astounded me as we were assembling the season last fall. The quest for truth has certainly been around since time began.

It is my hope that you will enjoy each of these great pieces of theatre that make up our 12th season in our beautiful space in Lapham Peak. Thank you for joining us!

DIRECTOR’S NOTE

I am very excited to bring Pride and Prejudice to life. I have always enjoyed the story and have seen a number of productions on stage and film.

I love Jon Jory’s adaptation as it really moves and connects more directly with the audience. Characters sometimes even talk directly to the audience. It puts all the emphasis on the actors and their presentational skills and their ability to recreate something that was never there before. No distractions - not as “talky” if you will - just a brief gallop through the psyche of each of the characters and what they were going through at that time.

This is an exceptional cast and I can’t wait for you all to share in this wonderful presentation of Pride & Prejudice. I have never had the opportunity to either perform it on stage or direct a production of it, and it has been an honor to lead this cast. I love this spruced-up version of this timeless classic and I hope you all do as well.

Enjoy the show!

Director
