Anything can happen when we recognize the magic of everyday life. Author P.L. Travers understood this special kind of magic when she published her first book, Mary Poppins, in 1934. The tale of the mysterious nanny who teaches a troubled family to appreciate the important things in life went on to become one of the most recognized and beloved stories of all time. Thirty years later, Walt Disney released the film based on Travers’ stories that became a classic beloved by millions, and now, Mary flies over audiences with breathtaking theatrical magic.

As a new father, diving in the world of MARY POPPINS and spending time with George, Winifred, Jane, Michael, and Mary has been a remarkable experience. Through her beloved characters, Pamela Travers has reminded me to focus on what is truly important: that we cannot have the extraordinary without the ordinary, the supernatural is hidden in the natural, and in order to fly you must have something solid to take off from. I hope that as you sit and spend a few moments with Mary and watch her wonder unfold on stage you remember what is truly important, as you leave the theatre you hold onto your loved ones a little tighter, and as you travel home you remember that anything can happen if you let it.

Though her words are simple and few, listen - she’s calling to you.

Chris and Caroline, this is for you – for you both are practically perfect in every way.

She cared for you.
We’ll help you care for her.

“Calling your office nearly two years ago was the best thing I could have done. I met with Jennifer who, over the years, has been a life saver for me. She helped my mom, but she always was there for me too. She is one of the most caring people I have ever met!”

Sunset Playhouse Giving Legacy Society

Bequests and other planned gifts have a profound and lasting effect on the artistic quality our patrons have come to expect from our productions and on the future of our theater. If you would like to join us in building that future, please consider naming Sunset Playhouse as a beneficiary of your will or trust, IRA or other retirement plan, life insurance policy, land or property, life income or other planned gift.

Sunset Playhouse has received a very generous donation as our first legacy gift. You, too, can take advantage of this kind and memorable opportunity.

For more information, please contact Sunset Board President Marla Eichmann at meichmann@sunsetplayhouse.com or call 262-782-4431 to set up a time to meet and discuss our Legacy Society.
