Linda Hake is thrilled to be back at FPP directing her second Young Performers’ production. Previously, she directed Mulan Jr. in 2016. Additionally, she runs the Drama Club and directs the spring musical here at North Middle School (Aladdin Jr. in 2017 and Beauty and the Beast Jr. in 2018). She’s directed the fourth and fifth grade musicals at Woodside Elementary School since 2014 where, conveniently enough, she is also the Associate Principal. Recently she won an Outstanding Director Award for her work on the 2017 WI State One-Act Festival competition piece Selfie at Hamilton High School in Sussex. When not directing and working with children, she enjoys spending time with family and friends, cheering on her favorite sports teams (On Wisconsin! Go Crew! Go Pack! Fear the Deer!), making way-too-intricate Halloween costumes, and cuddling with her dogs Max and Lucy. She would like to thank her son, Jack, and husband, Brian, for their love and support throughout this crazy process and is incredibly grateful to be able to share this experience with her daughter, Eliza. She also gives a huge shout out to all the parents of the Lion King Jr. cast. We could not have done this without you!

Ami Majeskie (Choreographer) is 2016 graduate from Carroll University with a Bachelor of Science degree in theater arts with double minor in communication and arts management. Currently Ami is a teaching artist for Milwaukee Repertory Theater as well as Milwaukee based choreographer and Young Performer Supervisor for Skylight Music Theater. Ami also served as a touring repertory actor, director, and playwright for Kohl’s Wild Theater. Past choreography credits include; The Flesh Trade, Urinetown, First Date, Anything Goes, Chicago, Rent, Aladdin Jr., Beauty and the Beast Jr., Parade,
