Tosa East Players
DIRECTOR’S NOTES

Thank you so much for joining us for the Tosa East Players’ production of Peter Pan!

Few stories have endured the test of time more than the tale of a boy who could fly and never had to grow up. For this particular version, we have focused our energy on reviving in our company the sense and spirit of play. The importance of imaginative play for the development and well-being of children is widely known. Imaginative play provides an opportunity for problem-solving, reflection, development of social skills, trust, camaraderie and a plethora of other positive benefits. And imaginative play isn’t just for kids. In a time where children are expected to grow up faster than ever and abandon the imaginary for reality and responsibility, it is even more important to encourage our children -and ourselves- to always remember to make time to play.

And what a place to do so! Neverland is the ultimate creative playground. It is a wild concoction of the Darling Children’s imaginations and is inhabited by a host of wonderful characters: Little boys who have lost their parents, mermaids, animals, fairies, pirates, and warriors. This beautiful, imaginary world affords us all the opportunity of a joyous and playful adventure, and Peter himself invites us to go with him where dreams are born and time is never planned.

Pan himself represents the spirit of play — and isn’t afraid to boast about it! He is able to soar freely through the air without the weight of responsibility, just as he is able to make believe his way out of any problem. And wouldn’t anyone wish that for themselves?

Wendy certainly does, and that is how we are invited into this magical show. We first meet Peter in Wendy’s nursery, after she has fallen asleep. In her dream, Peter is the embodiment of everything she wishes to have: The opportunity to always be a little girl and to have fun. So when Peter offers her the chance to meet the lost boys, she doesn’t hesitate to bring John and Michael along on her fantastic journey to Neverland, where no one has to worry about anything other than happy thoughts… and a shadow that won’t stand still.

Providing a space for students of all kinds to feel welcomed and loved just as they are is another of our program’s tenets. Therefore, as part of our enduring efforts to be inclusive of all people, I have decided to include sign language as a part of Peter’s interactions with Tinker Bell. My intention in including sign language is to extend our inclusive atmosphere to all people in our audience.

It is my truest hope that our Peter Pan will inspire you to think lovely thoughts and remember what it feels like to truly let go and play.

Natalie,
We always knew you could fly!

Break a leg!
Love, Mom, Dad, Aidan, Grant and Claire

Talbot: You got the perfect part for a lifelong WARRIOR
Hazel Bidwell, Cast / Paint
Much like the lost boys, Hazel doesn’t really want to grow up. She hopes to stay in touch with her childhood by pursuing a career in cartoons and comic books. She had so much fun getting to romp around onstage as a lost boy and she hopes you enjoy the show just as much as she did!

Steven Camacho, Lights Co-Head
So this kid does lights or sumthin lol, yea Max from last year taught him all he needs to know but it’s ok because it a OK amount XD. Encore Encore, World Goes Round, Pippin, and Footloose were fun or whatever i guess LOL. Peter Pan should be a good time or sumthin, can’t wait. anyway thx for reading this yea.

Maggie Cline, Cast
Maggie is is excited to be in her 8th final show with the Tosa East Players. she will never forget the amazing memories that she had in this theatre. She would like to thank her family for all the support that they have given but, She would especially like to thank her older siblings for introducing her to theatre and being such great role models to her. She still can’t believe that she is the last Cline in the Tosa East Players! Here’s to 13 years! <3

Peter Pan  11
Hannah Eckl, Hair & Makeup
Hannah Eckl is very excited to be a part of Peter Pan! She has always wanted to be in crew but never had the chance until this year!

Jayden Flowers, Pit
Jayden is so excited to be playing in pit for Peter Pan! She would like to thank her family and friends for their love and support.

Veda Fox, Paint / Playbill
Even though she has never been in a TEP production, she still loves to be on crew and help out backstage. She has had many awesome memories from being on crew that she will never forget and she hopes to make more memories with the time she has left at East. She would like to thank her BFF Abby Sumiec for always being there for her and supporting her. She would also like to thank her parents, friends, and Ms. Sarner for supporting her as well, she is so thankful to be a part of the Tosa East Players.

Samuel Hertzfeldt, Pit
Sam is so excited to be playing in pit for Peter Pan! He would like to thank his family and friends for their love and support.

Martilia Marechal, Cast / Playbill Crew Head
Martilia is very excited for you to see Peter Pan! She’s still in denial that it’s her senior year and last season of shows with this theatre, but the friends and memories she’s made will remain with her forever. She would like to give construction crew a shout out for teaching her how to use power tools, and thank everyone who worked on this production. Martilia would also like to thank you for actually reading this far into her playbill.
Ross Mattes, Cast / Flight
Ross walked in thinking this was a football meeting. He finally figured out it wasn’t when he had to sing. He is known for saying deep, thoughtful and kind things followed by absolutely ridiculous statements. When he’s not on stage embarrassing himself you can find him running, picking up trash or reading comic books. No matter where he is he always seems to have a smile on his face which is sweet but also a bit weird, but charming. XC is life.

Natalie Matthai, Cast / ITS Leader
As much as Natalie has tried not to get older, she has, in a way, climbed the evolutionary ladder these past four years, from playing a “little” gorilla in Tarzan in 8th grade, to gradually working up to more human-like characters. She is endlessly grateful for the outpouring of love and support from her family and friends, and for everyone who has inspired her to dream a little bigger. Natalie hopes Peter Pan will leave you thinking the loveliest of thoughts, and reconnected to the joyous spirit of play. Second star to the right, she’ll meet you there always.

Peter Pan 13
Mary McMahon, Paint
Mary is thankful for her opportunity to have been involved in various aspects of the Tosa East Theater. From singing and dancing onstage to leading community members to their seats as an usher, she has experienced this program in many ways, each teaching her a tremendous amount about art, friendship and leadership. From her four years as a Player she will most notably remember the smell of the paint studio, naps in the house aisles, glitter fights after Footloose, and, of course, the talented and kind friends she has had the good fortune of getting to know.

Elizabeth Moe, Pit
Lizzy is so excited to be playing in pit for Peter Pan! She would like to thank her family and friends for their love and support.

Aaron Mosey, Pit
Aaron is so excited to be playing in pit for Peter Pan! He would like to thank his family and friends for their love and support.

Grace Pionek, Costumes Head
Grace is so excited to be a part of Peter Pan! She would like to thank her family and friends for their love and support.

Hannah Rehfeldt, Hair & Makeup
Hannah is excited to be in her 7th show at East. For the past three years, she’s worked onstage for shows like The World Goes Round, and offstage for Pippin and Footloose. She thanks her fam and squad for all their support.

Kayden Rinzel, Pit
Kayden is performing for the 3rd show in her outstanding theater career. She played trombone for The World Goes Round ... and Pippin ... and what do you know, Kayden is once again in pit on trombone. Trombone is the only instrument she is allowed to play in pit as there is never a part written for kazoo, even though she has obtained mastery of that particular instrument. She hopes the next show will offer her a chance to share her skills and also hopes the audience will hear the trombone, pretend it is her kazoo and be impressed.

Adam Robinson, Paint
If Adam were to go back four years and ask his eighth grade self where he saw himself by senior year, chances are the space time continuum would be irreconcilably destroyed all because of a ridiculous hypothetical scenario he created for the sake of a senior bio.

Haven Stangel, Hair & Makeup
Haven is excited to be the head of hair and makeup crew for her seventh show with the Tosa East Players. She’s been getting practice this past year from doing makeup for Fright Fest at Six Flags, which has been a spook-tacular time! When she isn’t painting people’s faces in the theatre, you can find her at your local CMP Tactical Lazer Tag arena, attending concerts, or trying to achieve a new... eyeshadow lewk. She would like to thank her friends and family for their love and support. Enjoy the show!

Abby Sumiec, Construction / Deck
Abby has been part of the Tosa East Players since her freshman year. She has been in all the shows as a crew member from Shakespeare on Love in 2015 all the way to her finally show Romeo and Juliet in spring 2019. She has a passion for building the sets and help deck during the shows. And want to wish all incoming freshman good luck on their theater careers.

Emma Theisen, Costumes / Flight / Marketing / Paint / Playbill
ema ty-sen, n, a hot mess of a girl working on as many things both inside and outside of Tosa East Theatre as her unstable emotional state can handle. When she has free time, which is approximately never, she enjoys morphing into a burrito consisting of pillows and blankets, swimming in gallons of kombucha, or poking her fingers as she embroiders another jacket.

Congratulations to the Tosa East Players for their wonderful production of Peter Pan! The combined talents of out actors, musicians, crew, and directors make amazing things happen in the Dale K. Hidde Theatre

We are so proud of everyone!

-Wauwatosa East High School Staff and Administration
Bailey Wilde, Pit
Bailey is so excited to be a playing in pit for Peter Pan! He would like to thank his family and friends for their love and support.

Zoey Zanowski, Pit
Zoey certainly has “grown up” since being a little in vocal core for Tarzan. From taking the stage in numerous ensemble roles, to working behind the scenes in costumes crew, Zoey has spent a large portion of her time in the theatre and has loved it all the way through. Outside of the theatre (and countless other activities), you can find her regaining her sanity by eating too much ice cream, reading books, and singing at the top of her lungs. For her last musical, Zoey is excited to play the flute and piccolo and (hopefully) bless your ears!

Anna Ziebol, Costumes / Child Wrangler
Anna is so excited to be a part of Peter Pan! She would like to thank her family and friends for their love and support.
