DIRECTOR’S NOTES

Welcome to RENT: SCHOOL EDITION, the first of two exciting musicals this spring semester. In May, we will produce the family-friendly classic GUYS AND DOLLS. Shorewood was the first high school in the country to produce RENT, and we are excited to revive this important title.

When I first experienced this musical, I was blown away by the story that unfolded on stage. RENT was revolutionary when it premiered. It combines intense rock and roll music with powerful content about the HIV/AIDS crisis. Further making it unique is that its source material is the 1895 Giacomo Puccini opera LA BOHEME. I can’t remember how many times I have experienced this musical (Broadway, Chicago, Broadway tours, community theatre productions), but I’d venture to guess at least 15 times. However, that this was my first attempt at directing it. Last spring, the RENT Broadway tour played the Marcus Center (with one of my former students in the cast). A large group of SHS students attended on a field trip. I wasn’t sure what their response would be. I was worried that RENT was no longer appreciated as the powerhouse Pulitzer Prize-winning musical that it is. But, I was delighted that our students were mesmerized by it.

Having premiered off-Broadway in 1994, it’s so odd to view RENT as a period piece, but it is. There are many cultural references in the show that place it solidly in the late 1980’s/early 1990’s. But, more importantly, the complete grip that HIV had on our country when this musical is set is unmatched today. We have had wonderful discussions with the cast and crew about the content of the show. In 1991, unless you had unlimited funds for experimental medicines, those diagnosed with HIV, in essence, faced a death sentence. AZT, a twenty-year old failed cancer treatment drug, which is referenced often in the musical, was the only line of defense. Its success was marginal. “Today, if someone is diagnosed with HIV, he or she can choose from among 41 drugs that can treat the disease. And there’s a good chance that with the right combination, given at the right time, the drugs can keep HIV levels so low that the person never gets sick” (Alice Park, TIME Magazine, March 2017).

While HIV is a major plot point in tonight’s musical, it’s important to note that the show themes are even more important. At its heart, RENT is a story about bohemian artists attempting to create, to love, to grow, to learn, and to combat life’s struggles in the Manhattan borough of New York, a city that seemingly revels at turning starry-eyed artists into starving ones.

The original Broadway production premiered on April 29, 1996 at the Nederlander Theatre, where it ran for 5,123 performances over the course of 12 years. RENT was nominated for 10 Tony Awards and won four, including Best Musical, Best Original Score, Best Book of a Musical, and Best Featured Actor in a Musical (Wilson Jermaine Heredia as Angel).

Our production includes over 115 students (cast, crew, costumes, and orchestra). How exciting it is that more than 18% of the SHS Student Body is working backstage or onstage tonight! The students are excited to share this powerful story with you. Many thanks to Brad, Sara, Ryan, Raven, Amanda, Paul, and Kat for your countless hours of work to prepare our students to shine tonight!

Art, orchestra, band, choir, and drama are alive and well in our public school district. Thanks for continuing to be a supporter of the arts in Shorewood! Enjoy RENT!
