“The mind is its own place, and in itself can make a Heaven of Hell, a Hell of Heaven” – John Milton in PARADISE LOST

From the beginning of time, philosophers have discussed and debated the difference between reality and illusion. Reality, of course, is all that we perceive around us through our mind and our senses. Or, put another way, reality is truth. Illusions are contradictions to that truth. What we see may be at odds with what we know, and any number of optical illusions prove that this contradiction exists.

It is human nature to believe what we want to be true instead of what we observe to be true. Put another way, people only see what they wish to see. Turn on the news or log into social media to witness this occurring on a daily basis.

This can lead directly to creating our own illusion to escape the harshness of reality. And that is where our characters find themselves when THE CURIOUS SAVAGE begins. Nearly every character in the play has constructed their own illusion of what is real to escape reality – whether making a Heaven of their Hell or a Hell of their Heaven.

In the end, it is my hope that through this comedic, heartwarming play, when you encounter something you want to be true, you’ll reflect on it to determine if it actually is true… or if it is just illusion.

KRISTEN CARTER

Kristen is part of the Emerging Professional Residency Program at the Milwaukee Repertory Theater, working in its education department.

BECKY COFTA (Lily Belle Savage) – Becky is excited to return to Sunset where she was last seen in HELLO, DOLLY! Endless thanks to her friends for their never-ending support.

KATE DOMBROWSKI

Kate is also enjoying the opportunity to costume an early ‘50s production, a time period she’s not had the pleasure of attempting. Thanks to Nancy for yet another vote of confidence in the area of costuming, and to Dave for continuing to support this, among her many, projects.

JACQULIN DUBINSKY
(Miss Wilhelmina) – A graduate of UW-Parkside with a Bachelor of Arts degree, Jacqulin is thrilled to make her Playhouse debut. Entertainment begins at Sunset!
Sunset Playhouse Giving Legacy Society

Bequests and other planned gifts have a profound and lasting effect on the artistic quality our patrons have come to expect from our productions and on the future of our theater. If you would like to join us in building that future, please consider naming Sunset Playhouse as a beneficiary of your will or trust, IRA or other retirement plan, life insurance policy, land or property, life income or other planned gift.

Sunset Playhouse has received a very generous donation as our first legacy gift. You, too, can take advantage of this kind and memorable opportunity.

For more information, please contact Marla Eichmann at meichmann@sunsetplayhouse.com or call 262-782-4431 to set up a time to meet and discuss our Legacy Society.

Support Sunset Playhouse

Donations

Sunset Playhouse is largely supported by the generous gifts of our audience and funding organizations. All donations to Sunset Playhouse are considered tax deductible contributions to a 501(c)3 nonprofit institution. As you know, the cost to produce theater is not covered by ticket sales alone. We would be extremely grateful if you helped us close that financial gap to ensure quality productions and education for years to come. All donors will be acknowledged in our playbills.

Please call Nancy Visintainer-Armstrong, Artistic Director, at 262-782-4431x234 to talk about ways that you can support Sunset Playhouse.

Other Financial Support

There are many great opportunities to sponsor a Furlan Auditorium Production, Musical MainStage Concert, A SideNotes Cabaret Show or a bug in a rug Children’s Theater Show. A sponsor is recognized in the show’s program, in the advertisements and eblasts for the show and on Sunset’s website. A sponsor of a Furlan Auditorium Production receives 50 tickets to the show and the use of the Studio Theatre for a pre-show reception.
