According to Wikipedia (I know, not the greatest source, but this is not a college essay, only Director’s Notes!), “On any given day, there are at least seven performances of Mamma Mia! being performed around the globe. On May 15, 2005, Mamma Mia! surpassed the original Broadway runs of The Sound of Music, The King and I, and Damn Yankees with 1,500 performances. On March 6, 2014, it surpassed Rent to become the 8th longest-running Broadway musical and the 9th longest-running show of all time with 5,124 performances, then surpassed Beauty and the Beast’s 5,462 performances that same year, on December 14, to become Broadway’s 7th longest-running musical and 8th longest-running show. The Broadway run ended on September 12, 2015, with its 5,758th performance, and was passed two years later (August 16, 2017) by Wicked to move one spot down in the list of longest-running Broadway shows.” I have no idea how this holds up to Hamilton, but you get the idea: It is a popular musical!

We chose Mamma Mia! because the students who are seniors have been talking about this show since they were freshmen. When the licensing became available for high schools this fall and the second edition of the movie came out last summer, our decision was made in no time: We are performing Mamma Mia!

The show does present itself as a big fluff ball of fun, but when you peel back the layers of cotton candy, the show embodies strong female roles, women who don’t back down from a fight and have each others’ backs.

If you have half as much fun watching the production as we have had rehearsing and performing it, you will have a wonderful time!

Enjoy!
Laura
