Director's Note

In my hometown of Mayville, WI, Newsies was legendary. We had a strong competitive show choir tradition and a Newsies-themed show was their first Grand Championship. During my high school years, that performance was held up as the exemplar for us to strive towards. As an educator, I would often show the 1992 movie, starring a young Christian Bale, to my junior high students. I would relish the opportunity to point out that, yes, even Batman could sing and dance with the best of them and if they wanted to grow up to be Batman, they’d better do the same. As an adult, the Broadway show at the Marcus Center was an early date for me and my now fiancée. Our students can learn a great deal from this story of David vs. Goliath, of hope and teamwork, and of sacrificing yourself for the greater good. This story of protest still resounds with us today. Though a part of me wishes I was performing this weekend, it has been my honor to bring it to the stage with these wonderful, kind, and talented children. Seize the Day, kids! And let the World know what you today will be tomorrow’s news. Break a leg all of you!
