There’s No Place Like the Stage for the Holidays

By Stephanie Harte

From world premieres and comedy sketches, to one-woman shows and classic literature sequels, we get the inside scoop on four nontraditional holiday shows coming to Milwaukee.

Miss Bennet: Christmas at Pemberley, Milwaukee Repertory Theater

While the Milwaukee Repertory Theater has treated audiences to a whopping 43 years and counting of A Christmas Carol, this season the powerhouse company is adding another holiday title to the docket.

Miss Bennet: Christmas at Pemberley, by Lauren Gunderson and Margot Melcon, serves as a sequel to Jane Austen’s Pride and Prejudice. This time, the nerdy and often forgotten middle child of the five Bennet sisters, Mary (Rebecca Hurd), takes the spotlight, and finds an unexpected romance of her own in fellow book worm Arthur de Bourgh (Jordan Brodess).

“I’m really looking forward to developing an ensemble with the amazing artists I’ve assembled,” director Kimberley Senior says. “The play is so engaging and has a wonderful wink to the fact we are watching it in 2018, even though it takes place in the past.”

Miss Bennet picks up two years after Pride and Prejudice left off, with Mary’s older sister Elizabeth (Margaret Ivey), hosting Christmas for her extended family at Pemberley, the ancestral home of Fitzwilliam Darcy (Yousof Sultani). Elizabeth and Fitzwilliam’s romance helped drive the plot of Pride and Prejudice.

Senior says her own experience as a sister gives her a personal connection to these characters.

“Our sisterly collisions regarding values and the way we were raised, versus the way we want to live our lives has colored most of our interactions these 40 years,” Senior explains. “I also love the feistiness of all the women (in the play) and that they get to take front and center stage is wonderful.”

Miss Bennet: Christmas at Pemberley, presented by Milwaukee Repertory Theater, runs November 13 – December 16 at the Rep’s Quadracci Powerhouse, 108 East Wells Street. For tickets visit milwaukeerep.com or call the box office at (414) 224-9490.
Next Act Theatre has built a mission on producing pieces that bring social, cultural and political issues into the spotlight. However, this often makes finding a piece for the November-December slot challenging.

“I’ve learned over the years that people don’t really gravitate to those sort of topics during the holiday time,” says David Cecsarini, producing artistic director of Next Act. “Although I don’t look for something that necessarily has Christmas in the title or has a direct relationship to the holidays, I look for something, or create something that has redemptive value. Something that makes people feel good, while offering a fresh perspective.”

In 2015, after no luck finding a holiday piece that fit the bill, Cecsarini approached playwright Josh Kishline about creating a play set around a Milwaukee radio station on Christmas Eve in the 1950s. This came to be UnSilent Night, which premiered in Nov. 2016.

While this season’s offering, The Twelve Dates of Christmas, a one-woman show about navigating the dating world, may not sound like a typical Next Act piece, Cecsarini insists the redemptive quality in the script made it work.

“Mary (the woman) finds a certain piece within her self that allows her to not worry about what other people are saying,” Cecsarini explains. “She becomes comfortable embracing life.”

In The Twelve Dates of Christmas by Ginna Hoben, Mary (Susie Duecker) catches her fiancée kissing another woman on national TV at the Macy’s Thanksgiving Day parade. What follows is a year’s worth of luckless romances, building Mary’s cynicism on life and love.

Throughout the course of the play, Duecker will transform into the men Mary is dating and her persistent matchmaking family members.

The Twelve Dates of Christmas will also feature the musical stylings of two doo-wop girls, Kelly Doherty and Marcee Doherty-Elst. Although this singing duo doesn’t necessarily have to be in the show, Hoben includes a suggestion in her script to add this element of live music.

Cecsarini brought on Jack Forbes Wilson to music direct and arrange the musical accompaniment to the piece. Together they are also creating a number that parodies The Sound of Music to open the show.

“There’s hardly a Thanksgiving song out there, so we decided to add our own, called ‘My Thanksgiving Things,’” Cecsarini says. “It just adds entertainment value. The addition of live music is always energetic and fun.”

The Twelve Dates of Christmas, presented by Next Act Theatre, runs Nov. 15 – Dec. 9 at Next Act’s performance space, 255 S. Water St. For tickets visit nextact.org or call (414) 278-0765.
Back in 1992, James DeVita slipped a script across a Milwaukee Rep dressing room counter to fellow actor C. Michael Wright. The script was for Waiting for Vern, a one-man show he had been quietly working on.

Although DeVita admits he didn’t know Wright well at the time, he greatly admired his work as an actor and director, and therefore wanted him to be the first person that saw his work.

“He was wonderfully ruthless,” DeVita says. “There were Xs and red marks everywhere. He spent about a week with it, which was actually really encouraging because I know he saw some merit in it.”

After DeVita and Wright reworked the script, Waiting for Vern marked the inaugural production of the theatre company they started together, Collision Theatre Ensemble, in 1993. Although the company only lasted a few years, DeVita and Wright continued to collaborate on numerous projects, including another one-man play DeVita wrote called Dickens in America, which Wright directed.

This holiday season, Milwaukee Chamber Theatre presents the world premiere of DeVita’s Christmas in Babylon, a comedy about a blue-collar, lower-middle-class family living in North Babylon, Long Island. In Christmas in Babylon, Terry McShane (Tom Klubertanz) is randomly contacted by his ex-fiancée, Kathleen O’Rourke (Laura Gray), who he hasn’t seen in 25 years. Kathleen is a former Babylonian with an extremely successful self-help empire and a huge secret for Terry.

Wright has been MCT’s producing artistic director since 2005, and will once again direct DeVita’s piece.

“Just like Miracle on South Division Street (last year’s holiday show at MCT) I love how it is about family,” Wright says. “What we regard as important in terms of who our family is and opening up our doors to a bigger family. I feel like because of my life in the theater, that’s always been a strong part of who I am. I consider Jimmy DeVita my brother. He is definitely part of my family because we have been through so much.”

Like the characters in the play, DeVita also grew up in North Babylon. DeVita’s own Irish family inspired the characters’ personalities.

“They are the funniest people I have ever met,” DeVita says. “They are witty and dry and I don’t care what’s going on, how bad the situation is, they will find something to make you laugh. The world is on fire and if we could just get a little respite to laugh, I think that would be wonderful.”

Christmas in Babylon, presented by Milwaukee Chamber Theatre, runs Nov. 21 – Dec. 23 at the Broadway Theatre Center’s Studio Theatre, 158 N. Broadway. For tickets visit milwaukeechambertheatre.com or call the box office at (414) 291-7800.

Over its past 21 seasons, In Tandem Theatre has become Milwaukee’s unofficial home for alternative holiday fun—and co-founders Chris and Jane Flieller do not plan on giving up that reputation anytime soon.

For this season’s offering, Merry Chris-Mess, think early Saturday Night Live.

The show is set as an old-fashioned television variety show, hosted by the Cudahy Carolers, of A Cudahy Caroler Christmas fame. In Tandem Theatre staged a non-consecutive nine seasons of A Cudahy Caroler Christmas, which connected with audiences for poking fun at our fair city with songs like “O Bowling Night,” “In the Dells,” and “We T’ree Guys from Cudahy Are.”

Profits from the first six runs of Cudahy Caroler played a major role in building and opening In Tandem’s current home, the Tenth Street Theatre, located in the lower level of the Calvary Church.

Cudahy Caroler creator Anthony Wood returns with Merry Chris-Mess, bringing together new Cudahy Caroler songs, original sketches and a one-act spoof of It’s a Wonderful Life, frankly called It’s a Life.

“It dawned on me once while I was watching It’s A Wonderful Life just how irritating George (Bailey) was,” Wood jokes. “It’s still a charming film, but I just said ‘wow, what an annoying guy.’”

Wood then proceeded to rent the complete script of It’s A Wonderful Life from the Milwaukee Public Library and pick it apart. In Wood’s version, when the guardian angel shows George what life would be like without him, everyone is actually much happier.

“I think the reason it went over well with the original audience is that everybody knows that movie,” Wood says. “There probably isn’t anyone in this century that hasn’t seen it unless you live under a rock. You make a joke about something, they know what it is right away.”
It’s a Life takes up the complete second act of Merry Chris-Mess, with the comedic sketches and Cudahy Caroler tunes making up the first act.

“It's our favorite sketches from years passed and even before In Tandem,” Jane explains. “I know there is a lot of people who haven't seen these before, or haven't seen them in 20 years or more.”

Before Jane and Chris started In Tandem, they were members of a theater company called Screaming Penguin Productions. Jane describes Screaming Penguins as a loose-knit group of friends that produced one to three pieces a year. Wood was also a part of Screaming Penguins.

“It was pretty much whoever smelt it dealt it,” Jane says. “If you went, ‘here’s a play I want to produce,’ then you got to produce it.”

Each season, Screaming Penguins created a show called Holiday Hell, composed of sketches and song parodies much like Merry Chris-Mess.

When the Fliellers decided to bring the Holiday Hell comedy variety show back in 2016, they commissioned Wood to write the piece. This turned into Holiday Hell: The Curse of Perry Williams, a full-length musical about a television crooner in the midst of his annual Christmas special in the 1950s.

“Since people would now associate Holiday Hell with Perry Williams, we had to come up with a new title for this sketch comedy show,” Jane shares. “We came up with Merry Chris-Mess so people would get the idea that it’s not your traditional holiday affair. It’s right in line with what we’ve become known for.”

Merry Chris-Mess, presented by In Tandem Theatre, runs November 29 – January 6 at the Tenth Street Theatre, 628 N. 10th St. For tickets visit intandemtheatre.org or call the box office at (414) 271-1371.

THE OPTIMIST CREED

Promise Yourself -
To be so strong that nothing can disturb your peace of mind.
To talk health, happiness and prosperity to every person you meet.
To make all your friends feel that there is something in them.
To look at the sunny side of everything and make your optimism come true.
To think only of the best, to work only for the best and to expect only the best.
To be just as enthusiastic about the success of others as you are about your own.
To forget the mistakes of the past and press on to the greater achievements of the future.
To wear a cheerful countenance at all times and give every living creature you meet a smile.
To give so much time to the improvement of yourself that you have no time to criticize others.
To be too large for worry, too noble for anger, too strong for fear, and too happy to permit the presence of trouble.

The motto of the Optimist Club is “Friend of Youth” and “Bringing out the Best in Kids”. Many community events are sponsored by the Optimist club such as the Independence Day Parade, Kids Fishing Derby, Adopt A Highway, Leaf Raking for Senior Citizens, and many more. Some of the youth projects are Post Prom, Jr Miss, Student of the Month, Tri Star Baseball, Patio Players Youth Camp T-Shirts, and many scholarship opportunities such as the Jack Strawbridge Scholarship.

Alex Kreuzer (Technical Director)
This is Alex’s second season as Technical Director for Falls Patio Players. He has been a member of the Patio stage crew for several seasons and has discovered a real appreciation for theater and the people he has encountered in it. He enjoys problem solving and coming up with graceful solutions to the problems that theater presents. When not helping out at Patio, Alex can be found solving customers’ computing woes in his career as an IT professional, or pursuing one of his many interests, including working on his new home, spending time with family and friends, trying new and interesting beers, travelling the world, and with his wife Jenna training their new puppy, Porter.
Leah Wank (Stage Manager) Leah wears many hats both backstage and onstage, often simultaneously. Since 2005, she has been involved in some way with every Patio Players production. Favorite roles have been in Seven Brides for Seven Brothers (Alice) and My Fair Lady, as well as Christmas Carol roles including Isabelle (2012), Mrs. Shelby (2013), and light board op (2015). Here in Wisconsin, at the Riverside Theater, he spent some time with the Booze brothers. Currently, he’s the Parent advisor to the Slinger High School Tech Crew and Technical Director for the High School Musicals, teaching this craft to some wonderful students. During the summer Tom and his wife coordinate the students to do stage hand work for the main stage at the Washington County Fair, giving the wonderful experience of working with many touring acts. Believe it or not, some of these kids actually are doing this stuff in college and professionally. Go figure!

Rose Schwartz (Prop Master) Rose started as an usher and has been active in many areas of the theater for Falls Patio Players. It has been an enjoyable and rewarding experience working with such a hardworking, dedicated and talented cast and crew. There is always one difficult prop in every show to create or find.
