Welcome to A Midsummer Night's Dream, the premiere production of the 2019-2020 Shorewood High School Drama Season! After opening with a Shakespearean masterpiece, we’ll present the witty musical Urinetown in late January. We’ll end the year with the high energy dance spectacular Billy Elliot!

When the artistic team met this summer to begin discussing our concept for the show, we knew we wanted to update Midsummer from its original setting, ancient Athens. Acknowledging that nature is front on center to the play, we decided to set it in New York’s Central Park. Additionally, we are playing the show in the 1920’s which will allow for some fun dancing, costumes, and context. We hope you are delighted by our vision for one of Shakespeare’s most produced comedies.

This is my first time directing a work of Shakespeare and it has been a blast. Likewise, most of the actors are tackling the Bard for their first time. Our show includes pratfalls, spit takes, physical comedy, and huge physical choices. Also, we felt the show would best be served by designing an intimate setting. We think the thrust stage environment will be exciting for both you and the actors. There is always a heightened sense of energy when the audience is mere feet from the actors.

Thanks to Sara Van Loon, Brad Brist, and Amanda Hull for their continued amazing work with our student thespians. Also, we’d like to acknowledge Grace DeWolfe of Next Act Theatre (an SHS grad) for her work with our actors on text analysis!

Thank you very much for supporting SHS Drama and the Performing Arts Department. We are proud to produce theatre in a community where the arts are valued and encouraged at such a high level. Producing amazing theatre costs money. If you’d like to support our program, please consider becoming a Season Member/Donor. Enjoy A Midsummer Night’s Dream!

Mr. Joe D. King

Adlee: Congratulations on thy first SHS show! We love thee! Love – Mother, Father and Alex

For Ginny’s a jolly GOODFELLOW, that no fairies can deny! We love you kiddo. Best of PUCK to you and all the cast and crew! Love Mom & Greg, Dad & Kirstin, Dylan, Ian, Vi, Peter, and Lydia.

It is the sound guy and not the poet who transforms the things unknown, to amplify more than cool reason ever comprehends. Happy 16 to the Sound Bard, Henry! Love, Mom, Dad and Helen

No matter how big a crowd may be, a person like you always stands out. You are our shining star. Congratulations, Auden! Love Mom, Dad, Quinn, Adam & Em

Zoey, “The apparel oft proclaims the man” – – and also the play! Congratulations to the costumes crew on a beautiful show! Love Mom, Dad, Jake, and Grandma

To our very favorite joiner, a gentle beast of good conscience. You’ve the courage of a lion, tackling the words of the Bard.
