Kathy Mattea 7
Hailed by The Washington Post as “one of Nashville’s finest song interpreters,” Kathy Mattea has enjoyed the kind of success many artists only dream of. The dream almost ended, though, when Mattea entered her 50s and began to find her voice changing. What followed was a three-year journey through challenges that she describes as her “dark night of the soul,” a trying time of personal anguish and professional uncertainty that threatened to silence her permanently.

“The hardest thing was facing the question of whether I would still be able to sing well enough to enjoy it,” said Mattea. “That was the acid test for me, and I had to be willing to walk through a process that bumped me up against the very real possibility that, in the end, the answer might be No.”

Instead, Mattea dug in with a vocal coach, re-committed to her music, and emerged with the most poignant album of her career, “Pretty Bird.” Working with her old friend, music roots wizard Tim O’Brien, producing “Pretty Bird” is a chronicle of her journey, song by song, back to singing for the sheer joy of it. It’s an emotional, moving collection, one that draws its strength not only from Mattea’s touching performances, but also from her uncanny ability to weave seemingly disparate material into a cohesive whole.

Exquisitely arranged and delivered with the kind of subtlety and nuance that can only come from a lifetime of heartbreak and triumph, “Pretty Bird” is a title Kathy Mattea inhabits quite literally, and it’s a welcome reintroduction to one of country and Americana music’s most enduring and beloved figures.
Memories is "Your Live Entertainment Destination," boasting a variety of activities, from dinner theater and audience-interactive murder mysteries to its famous "Chicken Comedy" nights featuring nationally-renown stand-up comedians. Its dazzling 2500 square foot solid maple dance floor, rustic tamarack log ceiling and twin stone fireplaces also make it an enchanting hall for weddings, holiday parties, fund-raisers, meetings and reunions. Memories is conveniently located off Hwy 43 just north of Port Washington, Wisconsin, only 30 minutes north of downtown Milwaukee in the heart of Ozaukee County.

In keeping with our mission to Enlighten, Educate and Entertain, we work to create experiential opportunities for the young people of our community. They spend time learning what it takes to put on a successful Visiting Artists Series. They also learn from renowned performers through Master Classes, workshops and on-stage collaborations. Many have gone on to college programs and careers in the performing arts!

RECENT EFFORTS TO ENGAGE YOUNG PEOPLE

The Milwaukee Symphony Orchestra, with underwriting from the Rita Edquist Memorial Fund, provided a fun and inspirational holiday performance for local students – from grade school through high school.

NBC’s The Voice finalist Chris Mann collaborated with local high school students during his Visiting Artists Series performance. He sang several songs with the school’s 24-member A Cappella Choir.

One of America’s foremost musical ensembles, Dallas Brass, offered a clinic for middle and high school band students prior to their CPAC performance. Then, they invited the 72-member high school Symphonic Band to play with them on stage during their concert.

Commercial Art & Design students from the local high school partnered with the CPAC to create posters promoting student tickets for Visiting Artists Series performances.

CEDARBURG PERFORMING ARTS CENTER: SHINING ON FOR TWENTY YEARS

For more than 30 years, Cedarburg families dreamed of a suitable performance space for their children attending the Cedarburg schools. Their enduring vision, along with their generous support, ultimately led to an approval by school district residents to build a dedicated facility on the grounds of Cedarburg High School. In 1999, their efforts were realized when the Cedarburg Performing Arts Center opened its doors. While the facility was designed to provide exciting learning and performance opportunities for our students, community residents also were promised a magnificent venue beyond school presentations.

With this in mind, several community leaders came together with the intent of creating a vehicle – Cedarburg PAC, Inc. – to produce the Visiting Artists Series. They believed such a series would showcase Cedarburg on the world’s stage. And they worked tirelessly to make this concept a reality. Those founding sponsors and our other long-time supporters made it an incredible journey... one that always reflected the organization’s mission of “supporting and sustaining a professionally managed environment which presents programming to Enlighten, Educate and Entertain our greater community.”

During the past 19 years, Cedarburg PAC has been host to a large slice of American performing arts history showcasing some of the biggest names in the entertainment industry: Bob Newhart, Doc Severinsen, The Smothers Brothers, Janis Ian, Judy Collins, Hal Holbrook, Preservation Hall Jazz Band, Don McLean, Chris Botti, Kathy Mattea, Nitty Gritty Dirt Band, 10,000 Maniacs, The Osmond Brothers, Rich Little, Big Bad Voodoo Daddy, Wynonna Judd and many others. These artists come to us with varied backgrounds, perspectives, opinions, and performance styles. They give us exposure to their lives and experiences, and expand our base of knowledge regarding a part of America’s cultural history that has helped to shape our country.

Cedarburg PAC, Inc. has worked with Cedarburg School District teachers and staff members to ensure that students play an integral role in our Visiting Artists Series. Master classes with renowned artists, open sound checks, Q&A sessions, as well as opportunities to work alongside the performers themselves, are part of our commitment to provide valuable educational interactions for students. A continuing source of pride has been the many students who have gone on to successful careers in the arts industry.

From its inception, the partnership between the Cedarburg School District and Cedarburg PAC, Inc. has been a wonderful example of public and private entities working together to benefit community residents and visitors. We are proud partners in this endeavor! Thank you all for being part of our amazing journey. We look forward to seeing you during our exciting 20th Anniversary season of arts and education at the Cedarburg PAC.
