Sydney Bannach (Silly Girl, Co-Dance Captain) is over the moon to be performing in her last fall musical as both a Silly Girl and a co-dance captain. She is beyond grateful for the people who have helped make the stage her home over the past 3 years. She would like to thank her family, friends, directors and the cast for their love. She hopes you enjoy the show!

Claire Becker (Mrs. Potts) is thrilled to return to the stage for her third fall musical at DSHA. She has previously appeared in Les Misérables and the Prep Players’ Newsies. Claire loves to paint sets and draw off the stage, and she recently painted the stage for the Hartford Player’s Mamma Mia. Love to Mom, Dad, Richard, Grace, Copper, and Sophie for their endless stream of support and kindness.

Adam Blackwood (Company) is stoked to start his senior year off in another DSHA production. You may have seen him in Willy Wonka and the Chocolate Factory, as well as Les Misérables last year. Adam would like to thank the cast and crew for making this show one to remember.

Malachi Brown (Maurice) is thrilled to be part of his second DSHA production. As a senior at MUHS, his favorite theatre credits include Enjolras in Les Misérables and Crutchie in Newsies. He thanks Mrs. Sajdak and his parents for their loving support through all his shenanigans.

Hannah Bruckman (Silly Girl) is delighted to be in her ninth show at DSHA. She would like to thank the directors, crew and cast for dedicating so much time into this production. She would also like to thank her family and friends for supporting her no matter what obstacles she faces in life and in theater. Now relax as DSHA proudly presents Beauty and the Beast!

Andre Canseco (Monsieur D’Arque) is currently a senior at MUHS and is excited to be a part of Beauty and the Beast! He is so honored to be able to play this role in his last show at DSHA. He wants to thank his family and every single person who has made this show an unbelievably amazing experience!

Riley Connelly (Silly Girl) is thrilled to be in Beauty and the Beast! No stranger to the stage, this is Riley’s third DSHA musical and she has performed in 17 shows with CYT. Her favorite productions include Joseph, Mary Poppins, and Les Misérables. She would like to thank Mr. Becker, the amazing crew, her fellow silly girls, and her family for always supporting her. Proverbs 31:25

Nick Doermann (LeFou) is hyped to be playing LeFou in Beauty and the Beast! This is Nick’s fifth show at DSHA, with him most recently seen playing Claquesous in Les Misérables. Nick would like to thank Mr. Becker and Mrs. Marsala for how much time they put into the show, and can’t wait to work with them again. Shoutout to his parents and his sisters for all their support.
Lizzie Dondlinger (Silly Girl) is a sophomore and is thrilled to be performing in her third production of Beauty and the Beast and her second show at DSHA!! Shoutout to her family for all their love, support and chauffeuring! She’d also like to thank the directors, crew, and cast for making this such a meaningful and magical experience! Enjoy the show!

Abigail Fleischmann (Company, Senior Crew Member), a senior at Divine Savior Holy Angels, is pumped to be a part of this incredible show. This is Abby’s fourth production at Divine Savior Holy Angels with her most recent role being Medda Larkin in CTW’s Newsies this past summer. She would like to thank the entire cast and crew for making her experience so memorable and hopes you enjoy the show!

Ellen Fricker (Cogsworth) counted down the minutes to the opening of her eighth and final DSHA musical and cannot believe how fast time has flown by! She is extraordinarily grateful for the hard work of Mr. Becker, Mrs. Marsala, and the insanely talented cast and crew. Shoutout to her beautiful family, beloved Laires, ballet buds, and the family she’s found here. Enjoy!

Erin Fricker (Silly Girl) is thrilled to be performing in her fifth DSHA musical with the amazing cast and crew of Beauty and the Beast! Erin is a sophomore and enjoys ballet at Acts 17:28 Dance when not onstage. Shout out to her fellow angelaires, the RRR’s, and her fantastic family (miss you next year Ellen!!). Now, be our guest and enjoy the show!

Oscar Gregg (Lumiere) is absolutely ecstatic to be in DSHA’s Beauty and the Beast!! You may have seen him in various other shows at DSHA, including The Little Mermaid as King Triton, Les Misérables as the Bishop, and CTW’s Newsies as Jack Kelly. Oscar would like to thank Mr. Becker and everyone involved for making this an unforgettable show! Thank you for being our guest!!!

Riley Halpern (Madame de la Grande Bouche), a junior, is thrilled to appear in her fourth DSHA production after playing Eponine in Les Misérables. She’s also performed with First Stage, Skylight Music Theatre, the Milwaukee Rep, Interlochen Arts Camp, and most recently as Hope Cladwell in First Stage’s Company Class’s Urinetown. She’d like to thank the directors, cast, crew, and the CCC. Enjoy the show!

Tessa Hruz (Makeup Artist) is thrilled to be spending another year with the DSHA Theatre and to be a makeup artist for Beauty and the Beast. This is her fifth show and third musical. She gives much credit to Mrs. Schmidt for encouraging her to do what she loves and also a big thanks to the actors who she has worked with in previous shows.

Ella Larscheid (Assistant Scenic Designer) is excited to be a part of her twelfth show at DSHA. She would like to thank Mrs. Marsala for giving her many opportunities to learn various aspects of putting on a show. She had a great time working on the set and hanging out with everyone on stage crew. Please enjoy the show.

Grace Lois (Chip) is so excited to bring a bubbly Chip to life in Beauty and the Beast, her 8th show here at DSHA! She would like to thank her family for supporting her and the wonderful cast and crew for all their love and hard work. A special thank you to the directors for leading the cast and crew in bringing the show to life!

Kathy Michaletz (Belle) is honored to be playing Belle in this year’s fall musical! As a junior, this is her eighth DSHA production and third fall musical. She would like to thank her family, friends, directors, and the understudy squad for always believing in her. She hopes you love the show!

Liam More O’Ferrall (Prince/Company) is ecstatic to get the opportunity to participate in his first show at DSHA! He wants to thank his supportive parents and family along with the directors, cast, crew, and everyone else who made this show as amazing as it could be!

Erin O’Neil (Company) is so thrilled to be apart of her final fall musical at DSHA! She has been a part of 5 shows at DSHA throughout her four years here. Beauty and the Beast is one of her favorite Disney shows and is very excited to be a part of it and share this wonderful story with the audience!

Max Pickart (Beast), a senior at MUHS, is thrilled to be a part of Beauty and the Beast. The production team, the cast, and the crew deserve unending praise for their constant encouragement and tireless work. Max is forever thankful for this opportunity to perform on the same stage as his little sister, Maeve. He has endless love for his family and friends. MM|JM|OB|DD|JKSMML.

Hailey Quinette (Company) is delighted to be on stage for her final fall musical at DSHA. She was seen this past summer as a Bowery Beauty in CTW’s Newsies and would like to thank her friends and family who support her both on and off the stage. Special shoutout to the crew for always doing a FANTASTIC job!

Marianne Schneider (Beggar Woman/Company) is thrilled to be in Beauty and the Beast. This will be her fourth show at DSHA, and her sixth show total. She would like to thank Mrs. Schmidt, for her patience and willingness to listen, and Mr. Becker, for his sense of humor and ability to take initiative with a new cast. She would also like to give a shout out to her family!

Sam Schreck (Enchantress/Company, Co-Dance Captain), a senior at DSHA, is beyond thrilled and thankful to be a part of Beauty and the Beast! This will be Sam’s fourth production with DSHA. You may have recently seen her in GCT’s production of Mamma Mia. She would like to thank her family, friends, production team, and the rest of the theatre community for their endless love and support!

Kaitlyn Schwarz (Narrator/Company, Assistant Director) is ecstatic to be a part of both the production team and the cast of Beauty and the Beast for her senior show at DSHA! She would like to thank Mr. Becker, Mrs. Marsala, and Mrs. Wickert for making this show such an incredible experience. Huge shoutout to her family and friends for supporting her throughout this process! Thanks for being our guest!
Mary Elizabeth Stern (Babette), a senior, is thrilled to be in her sixth show at DSHA! She could recently be seen as Fantine in Les Misérable and Terry Randell in Stage Door.

Special thanks to her endlessly supportive family, cast, crew, directors, and especially the Castle Crew. Enjoy the show!

Rachel Visser (Silly Girl) is thrilled to be in her fifth DSHA production! Most recently, she appeared as Romeo in CTW’s Newsies and Glory in Almost, Maine. Other favorite roles include Beth March in Little Women and Mabel in Pirates of Penzance. She would like to thank her parents for endless support of the arts and all of her past and present directors for helping her grow.

Clarissa Strother (Stage Manager) is excited to be stage managing her second show and participating in crew for her thirteenth DSHA production! She would like to thank her family and friends for their continued support and the production team for their hard work on this show. Special thanks to the unstoppable crew. Enjoy the show!

Antonis Ybarra (Gaston), a sophomore, is stoked to be apart of Beauty and The Beast! This marks his third high school production and debut in DSHA theatre. He is no stranger to the stage, having previously appeared as Angelo in A Comedy of Errors and Elmer in Marquette’s production of Newsies! He would like to thank all who have supported and guided him along this thespian journey.

PRODUCTION TEAM BIOGRAPHIES

Jerry Becker (Director) has been at DSHA for about a week and a half. After 34 years appointed by the court to represent children and others who might not be able to speak for themselves, he now joins our theatre family as a recovering lawyer, pursuing his first loves – music and theater. His escapades have included 30 years of directing and appearing on stages throughout southeastern Wisconsin, and 20 years as the leader of the award-winning swing and events band, the Mr. Lucky Syndicate. He is also a published composer whose pieces have appeared on the State Solos and Ensembles list for jazz band. He is grateful to his home family and this, his “new home family” (the ever-patient Amanda, in particular) for this wonderful new life.

Amanda Marsala (Scenic Designer and Technical Director) has been at DSHA since 2006. Prior to working at DSHA, Amanda worked at The Skylight as a Scenic Carpenter and Deck Chief; at First Stage Children’s Theatre as a Scenic Carpenter; and at the Betty Brinn Children’s Museum as an Exhibit Technician. Here at DSHA, Amanda has the honor of creating over forty theatre productions with the students, parents, volunteers, and production teams. The energy and enthusiasm the students put into each production never ceases; your dedication keeps this department running! A few of Amanda’s favorite productions here at DSHA are Clue, Legally Blonde, Peter Pan, Into the Woods, Mary Poppins, and The Little Mermaid.

Rebekah Wickert (Vocal Music Director) is delighted to be the music director for Beauty and the Beast. After 13 years, in June 2018, Rebekah retired from Divine Savior Holy Angels High School as director of choral studies where she was the music director for dozens of musicals, choral concerts, and Angelaira shows. Rebekah graduated from UW Eau Claire with a bachelor’s degree in Music Therapy and a few years later received her Music Education certification from Alverno College. In 2009 she received her graduate degree in Music Education with a Choral Conducting emphasis from UW Milwaukee.

Maggie Seer (Choreographer) received her BFA in Dance from UW-Milwaukee in 2016. She has been a company member with Danceworks Performance MKE since 2017 and Wild Space Dance Company since 2016. She performs with Maria Gillespie’s Hyperlocal MKE and the Gina Laurenzi Dance Project. She has choreographed several times for the Danceworks DanceLAB Get It Out There concert series, and was selected as a presenting choreographer for the 2020 Danceworks’ Emerging Choreographers Concert. Seer has choreographed a number of musical theatre works including Peter Pan, Damn Yankees, Once Upon a Mattress, Footloose and this is her second experience choreographing Beauty and the Beast. Seer is also Danceworks’ Development and Programs Manager, and teaches in the studio and community for Danceworks.

Julie Johnson (Orchestra Conductor) is thrilled to be orchestra directing this fall for Beauty and the Beast. She is a very active musician who loves to share her happiness and bring joy to others through music and theater! In addition to teaching piano lessons and musical theater classes, she serves as an accompanist for concerts and auditions at several area schools and theaters. She works with many theater companies including Outskirts Theater, All in Productions, Waukesha Civic Theater, Hartford Players, Lake Country Players and Mukwonago Village Players. When she is not actively playing the piano, she serves as the Development Coordinator at the Schauer Arts and Activities Center in Hartford.
Marisa Abbott (Lighting Designer) works as a freelance Lighting Designer, Electrician, and Scenic Artist around the Milwaukee Area. Previous designs at DSHA include Almost Maine, The Little Mermaid, and Willy Wonka. Other recent lighting designs include Everybody, The All Night Strut! and Lost Girl (Milwaukee Repertory Theater), The Revolutionists (Next Act Theatre), Fires in the Mirror and Ben Butler (Milwaukee Chamber Theatre), The Miracle Worker, The Best Christmas Pageant Ever and The Girls in the Boat (First Stage), Momentum (Milwaukee Ballet II), My Fair Lady and Elf the Musical (Fireside Dinner Theater), and Skeleton Crew (Forward Theater Company). She has also painted scenery for the Milwaukee Rep, Renaissance Theaterworks, and Kohl’s Wild Theatre. ma-stagedesign.com

Shane O’Neil (Assistant Lighting Designer) is excited to be working on DSHA’s Beauty and the Beast as the Assistant Lighting Designer. Shane is a freelance lighting designer and electrician in the Milwaukee area working locally with such companies as Skylight Music Theatre, Sharon Lynne Wilson Center for The Arts, In Tandem Theatre, First Stage as well as working with local high schools such as University School of Milwaukee and Germantown High school. Shane has also travelled the country working for companies such as The Guthrie (MN), Champaign Urbana Ballet (IL), and Two River Theater Company (NJ). www.shaneoneildesign.com

Gwen TerHaar (Costume Designer) is a private voice teacher from Pewaukee. She has won Jerry awards for her musical direction and costuming at Pewaukee High School’s Addams Family. She musically directs, directs and designs costumes for local area productions for both schools and local theater. Some of her singing/acting credits include Lucy in Jekyll and Hyde for West Allis Players, Madame Thénardier in Les Misérable at Waukesha Civic Theater, and Pennywise in Urinetown at Lake Country Playhouse. Gwen musical directs the youth summer and spring show for Waukesha Civic Theater. This year she will also begin directing the musical at Saint John Vianney’s school.

Brandon Gregory (Sound Designer) is as freelance Live Sound Engineer and operates BREG Audio LLC. In addition to running his company, Brandon works with many different production companies around central and south-eastern Wisconsin. During his career, he has worked with hundreds of different events including music festivals, corporates, and theatre groups.

Terese Radke (Production Coordinator) is ecstatic to return to DSHA for another fabulous musical! She is grateful for the chance to work with such a devoted and fun production team like Mr. Becker and Mrs. Marsala. In past DSHA productions, Terese has worked various jobs such as a carpenter, set designer, Captain Magic and assistant technical director. Some of her favorite past shows include Peter Pan, Shrek, Hairspray and Newsies. Terese is a 2016 graduate of DSHA and now attends UW-Milwaukee where she is working towards her degree in advertising and public relations.
DIRECTOR'S NOTE

Whenever the world seems sad, go buy a ticket to see a show. I recommend comedy, preferably a musical, but whatever shoe fits... as long as you find it uplifting. Theatre adds beauty to the world, and that is a gift which this talented company will give to you in abundance. I am so proud of them all – those whom you will see in the spotlight and those who serve in the shadows to make possible the light. They all represent the best of our schools, our world, our future. You being here to watch them and cheer them on affirms their faith in the value of what they give, and assures them that their hard work sends little ripple of happiness out into the pond of life that will, in turn, touch others, spreading ever-outward from there. This is the hope in our tale, which is as old as time, and the treasure of their future – a treasure to which we invite you to be our guests.

I am so honored to have been adopted into this theatre and school family. Here’s to the beginning of a beautiful friendship…

Jerry Becker
Director, BATB 2019
