There’s no business like show business. For many artists, their love of the arts consumes their lives... sometimes even including their love lives! We sat down with some of our favorite local artist couples to talk about what it really takes to keep the romance alive while both building a career in the performing arts.

“Chris and I met when I moved to Milwaukee from Detroit following my graduation from Wayne State University with a degree in Stage Management,” said Jane. “He had just gotten back from a summer at the Utah Shakespeare Festival... I worked as a stage manager for a company called Theatre Tesseract. Rehearsals started two weeks after I moved here, and Chris was in the cast. We began dating before the show closed and we’ve been inseparable ever since.”

Jane and Chris’s love of this artform led to the birth of what would become a large staple in the Milwaukee theatre community: In Tandem Theatre. “We realized that we wanted to work together in our chosen industry, and that the only way to do so was to form our own company - hence, In Tandem Theatre was born,” said Jane, who ran the company with her husband for over two decades. And while the dynamic duo decided to take a step back after 21 seasons, they’ve found that the freed up nights and weekends have given them more down time to spend together.

“It was a showmance!” said Brenda. “We met onstage in a 2005 production of The Pirates of Penzance at the Moonlight Amphitheatere in Southern California.”

Brenda and Randall opened Forte Theatre, a professional company based in Franklin. Their inaugural production, Miracle on 34th Street, ran this past December.

“The advantage of creating a theatre company together is that we wake up every day working side by side towards the same goal. The challenge is that we wake up every day working side by side towards the same goal,” said Brenda. “All kidding aside, it’s pretty incredible to share the same vision and be in the trenches every day with your partner, colleague and best friend.”

The couple, and their new company, are quite the ambitious force. Currently, they are campaigning to purchase and renovate a historic hardware store in Franklin to turn into a new theatre space.
"The advantages of being a theatre couple are that you have someone who truly understands what it is like..."

- MARCEE DOHERTY-ELST -

"We actually met doing a show," said Marcee, who met Christopher in 2008. "We were both in You're A Good Man, Charlie Brown. Christopher played Charlie Brown and I played Lucy!" Although they developed a friendship during the process, it wasn’t until after the show had closed that they began to date.

Their passion for theatre went to the next level in 2013, when the couple opened their own theatre company: Theater RED. And while they’ve worked together on many shows with the company, and with other groups, being in the arts means that their schedules don’t always align. "Being a theatre couple mostly means not seeing each other all that often," said Christopher. "The good news is we both understand a theatre schedule, so we’re not as put out as the average person might be when a production bites a month or two out of the standard social schedule."

"The advantages of being a theatre couple are that you have someone who truly understands what it is like to audition, rehearse, perform and all the nerves, ups, and downs that go along with it," said Marcee. "Christopher knows what it is like for me to go into an audition, nerves aplenty, and either walk out feeling great or walk out wanting to bury my head in the sand. Christopher knows the stress, exhaustion, and joy of tech week. Christopher knows the joy of getting a role you really want and the disappointment of not."

"We met on the National tour of the show Evita," said Susan. We became friends right away, but didn’t start dating until the tour ended."

Susan and Andrew, after establishing themselves in New York, decided to make Milwaukee their new home. Both have performed with many local groups, and they’ve had the chance to work together on several projects, including Sweeney Todd and Les Miserables at Skylight Music Theatre.

"It can be challenging when a gig takes us away for weeks, or months," said Susan. "But we have a ‘three week rule’ - we can’t go longer than that without seeing each other, no matter what. Even if it's only for 24 hours!"

That commitment to their art, and to each other, has helped them find a successful work/life balance. “We feel grateful to be in the same business, because we understand the requirements, schedule and commitment inherent in this life,” said Susan.
“We met 36 years ago in San Francisco, while I was touring with "MASTER HAROLD" ... and the boys," said Michael. "Ray was in the audience on our opening night there and we met at this very fancy dinner afterward."

Both Michael and Ray have had impressive performing careers, as well as taking on the hats of Artistic Directors. Ray served as Artistic Director of Skylight Music Theatre until last season, and Michael is currently in his last season as Artistic Director of Milwaukee Chamber Theatre.

“One of the greatest advantages is that we both understand the crazy highs and lows of a life in the theatre,” said Michael. “There can certainly be a lot of joy and fulfillment, but there can also be a lot of instability and stress. It’s a regular roller coaster. The greatest challenge is trying to find enough quality time together while we’re both dealing with the long days and erratic hours.”

With retirement on the horizon, the two look ahead to what other projects may arise. “It would be fun to act in something together. We haven’t done that since Guys and Dolls at Skylight back in 1997,” said Michael. “How about a gay Odd Couple?”

“Working on a show together has advantages because we can stay up late at night in front of the fireplace, planning in the comfort of our home,” added Jes. “We are often able to discuss a lot of the vision and intentions in the evenings and mornings, so we can arrive on the same page to meetings and rehearsals.”
“We met in 1999 during a Ten Minute Play Festival produced by Playwrights Studio Theatre at the Miramar Theater,” said Laura. “It was my first show in Milwaukee after interning at Milwaukee Rep, and Jonathan was already working regularly with many local companies. Although we weren’t in any of the same plays, there was an immediate connection and interest in each other.”

Both Laura and Jonathan have built solid careers in the Milwaukee theatre community. And while their work spreads wide across a variety of companies, some of their favorite projects are when they get to work together.

“On occasion, we get to act opposite each other,” said Laura. “As well as providing a chance to spend more time together, many of these moments acting with each other have been personal and professional highlights. Also, you have someone who you can come home to who understands the job. A partner you can spitball ideas with, work through a challenge, speak the same language. An ally who knows the ins and outs of the process and the highs and lows of the profession.”

“Jim and I met when we worked on Exonerated, the inaugural production of Next Act’s new space,” said Tami. “Jim played a cop who interrogated my character, Sunny, who’s husband was wrongly accused and placed on death row.”

“Prior to the start of rehearsals I reached out to Jim via email to tell him how nice it will be to work together. He responded back with a list of rules of when I was allowed to speak to him, which was not before noon, and a number of other star requirements. I had no idea he was pulling my leg!”

The two of them have a long list of theatrical roles under their belts, many of which have been shared together. Most recently, the duo was seen in Milwaukee Rep’s A Christmas Carol. “It’s nice to have a shared experience especially during the hustle and bustle of the holidays,” said Tami. “It feels like we truly experience the fullness of the season as we prance around in our Dickensian costumes like moving Christmas cards. I look across the rehearsal hall and see him kicking up his heels in the Fezziwig dance, then getting really frustrated with himself and his momentary two left feet, and it makes me giggle.”

“He responded back with a list of rules of when I was allowed to speak to him, which was not before noon...”

Mark Clements, Artistic Director

Mark is an award-winning international theater director whose work has appeared in over 100 major theaters throughout Europe and the United States. He began his tenure as Artistic Director with the 2010/11 Season by bringing musicals to the mainstage, starting a tradition that is now the highlight of every season, including Cabaret, Next To Normal, Assassins, Ragtime, Dreamgirls, The Color Purple, Man of La Mancha, Guys and Dolls, In the Heights and West Side Story. Milwaukee Rep directing credits include the world premieres of One House Over, his own adaptation of the current A Christmas Carol, Five Presidents and American Song. Also directed for Milwaukee Rep: Things I Know To Be True (American Premiere), Junk, The Glass Menagerie, Of Mice and Men, Othello, Death of a Salesman, The History of Invulnerability, End of the Rainbow, Clybourne Park and Bombshells. Some of his New York and international work includes Speaking in Tongues, The Milliner and Blunt Speaking, in addition to creating and directing the West End and UK National Tour of Soul Train. Prior to joining The Rep, Mark served as an Associate Artistic Director for several UK theater companies, most notably, Artistic Director for the award-winning Derby Playhouse in the UK from 1992 - 2002, where he directed over 40 productions. He has been nominated for an Olivier Award and several UK Theatre Awards, and has won three Barrymore Awards from his time at Walnut Street Theatre in Philadelphia. He currently serves on the National Advisory Board for the Lunt-Fontanne Fellowship Program at Ten Chimneys. Mark is currently working with Ayad Akhtar on adapting his critically acclaimed novel American Dervish for the stage to make its world premiere at Milwaukee Rep in an upcoming season.

Chad Bauman, Executive Director

Appointed in 2013, Chad is now in his seventh Season at Milwaukee Rep. Under his guidance, the theater has grown significantly from a $9M organization to a $13M organization. He’s completed two capital campaigns, one to remodel and expand the Stackner Cabaret and the other to build the endowment, launch the John (Jack) D. Lewis New Play Development Program, create a new A Christmas Carol and deepen the theater’s community engagement programs. Through his efforts, the theater has been awarded UPAF’s Good Steward Award four out of the last six years and became the only performing arts organization in Wisconsin with a 4 star rating from Charity Navigator. Before moving to Milwaukee, he was the Associate Executive Director at Arena Stage in Washington, DC, where he was instrumental in opening the Mead Center for American Theater, a 200,000 square feet, three theater performing arts complex dedicated to American voices and playwrights. While at Arena Stage, he worked on the Broadway transfers of Next to Normal (Pulitzer Prize; Tony Award), Who’s Afraid of Virginia Woolf? (Tony Award), Wishful Drinking starring Carrie Fisher, Looped starring Valerie Harper, and John Grisham’s A Time to Kill in addition to the world premieres of Marcus Gardley’s Every Tongue Confess starring Phylicia Rashad and Red Hot Patriot starring Kathleen Turner. He has been named to Milwaukee Business Journal’s Top 40 under 40 and a “Friend of the Hispanic Community” by the United Community Center. He currently serves as the President of the Milwaukee Arts Partners, Vice President of the Board of Pathways High School, Chair of the Finance Committee of ImagineMKE, and Coordinator for Equity, Diversity & Inclusion for AFS Student Exchange Programs. Bauman is a graduate of Harvard Business School’s Strategic Perspectives in Non-Profit Management program and has a Master of Fine Arts in producing from the CalArts. He and his husband Justin live in Whitefish Bay and have been host parents to AFS Exchange Students from Norway and Germany.
