Bows and Finale
Mama Mia! Harrison Carter, we can’t wait to see ya! Your family is so devoted to you we will gladly sit through ABBA music each night just to see you in the stage’s light!

Congrats on your role as Bill, “Potential Dad Number Three”! Sophie’s father you just might be! Then again it could be Sam or Harry! Is there anyone else it could be? This makes for a complicated family tree!

Donna doesn’t know who the father could be but at least the possibilities are only three! Sounds like a plot for soap opera TV!

Maybe Donna should confess That a DNA test would be best To clear up this mess.

Then Sophie wouldn’t have three men lined up single file all wanting to walk her down the aisle! The plot is so salacious it make you cringe - but smile.

Alas, potential dads numbering three is the reason apparently that grade school kids will not be coming on field trips to see this show in its PG-13 entirety.

Harrison, this wraps up your DHS musical theater time (and my making poems dedicated to you rhyme.) You did a great job in Mama Mia, Newsies, and Big Fish! Our only wish Is that you know through and through How very much we love you!

Hard to believe it’s your senior year. Thinking of you going to college soon brings a tear. You have always been a good boy and brought us so much joy! Even if you wind up in a different time zone, We will be right here, loving you from home!

Mom, Dad, Haley, Ryan, Harrison, Alex, Jane and Josey

Alia Melloch, Senior
Lisa (Beach Cast)

Alia is thankful for Mr. Schaetzke for offering her the opportunity to grow, and she thanks Mr. E for seeing the potential of the cast and helping them gain confidence. She appreciates both the stage crew and costume staff for their often under-appreciated work. Alia thanks her parents for allowing her to go to this wonderful school and supporting her. She wants the cast to know how much she loves them and all they have done to make her final musical a beautiful and memorable one. Please enjoy Mamma Mia!

Jessica Miller, Senior
Stage Manager
This is Jessica’s eighth show at Dominican, including In the Heights, Big Fish, and Newsies. Her natural habitat is a dark theater, where you might find her taking a nap on the floor or staring at the wall drinking coffee and trying to regrow brain cells after a hard day of classes. She is thankful for her family and friends because they are amazing and considerate of the insane schedules and late nights. She is also thankful for all the actors, tech crew, Mrs. Van Beek and Mr. Schaetzke for their hard work to make this possible. Dominican theater is a family that she is very happy to be part of.
