He thanks his family and friends for their support.

A huge thanks to Jason, Marty and Robin for this opportunity, as well as to the entire cast and crew for an amazing experience.

Alyssa Rosenbaum (Ensemble) – Alyssa is so excited to be making her community theatre debut with GTG! Hailing from Northbrook, Alyssa’s love for musical theatre and singing began from an early age and continues to this day. She graduated in 2013 from Lawrence University with a Bachelor of Arts major in German and Minor in Linguistics and was a member of their choir. The last musical she was in was Guys and Dolls on this very stage, so it makes perfect sense that she should return to her musical theatre roots with this show! Many thanks to the cast and crew for their support in making this such an unforgettable experience!

Jenny Rudnick (Mrs. Paroo) – Before taking time off to raise her children (and become a CPA), Jenny spent many years performing in NYC and Chicago in dinner theater, on tours, and even doing a stint on a cruise ship. She continued singing in choral groups, performing with the Melodeers, Chicago Master Singers and BG Singers and even had the honor of singing the National Anthem at a Cubs game. Her favorite roles since returning to the theater have been the Housewife in Working with Libertytown Productions, Princess in Hats! with the Kirk Players and Grandma Rosie in Wedding Singer with Big Deal Productions. She is thrilled to be a part of this production!

This is her first performance with GTG and she is very excited to be a part of The Music Man cast. Nina is a 4th grader at Pleasant Ridge in Glenview. Aside from acting, she enjoys dancing, tumbling, singing, soccer, pottery and being with her friends and family. She would like to thank everyone involved in this production. It has been a fun-filled few months!

Scott Schwartz (Charlie Cowell) – Scott is so excited to be appearing in his first production with GTG, reprising one of his favorite roles, especially with so many good friends in the cast. First appearing on the stage in You’re a Good Man Charlie Brown more than 30 years ago, Scott has been a part of productions such as How to Succeed, The Sound of Music, Chicago, My Fair Lady, Seussical, The Wizard of Oz, Joseph, Willy Wonka, The King and I, and Honk!. In real life Scott has had a career in sales (not Anvils), and is a principal in SmartPrice Sales & Marketing, providing food products to dollar stores (shameless plug #1) and serves on the board for the Deerfield Family Theatre/Theater D (shameless plug #2). Thanks to the production staff for such a wonderful experience. Scott’s favorite role of all has been playing a supporting role to his two beautiful daughters, Edie and Carly.

Alison Stake (Ensemble) – Alison is so excited to be in The Music Man with GTG! She was most recently in the “Tribe” of Big Noise Theatre’s production of Hair. Also in and near Chicago, she was Maggie in A Chorus Line (HPP), in the ensemble of Ragtime (Big Noise Theatre), in Orpheus and Euridice (Chicago Opera Theater), and in the ensembles of Whistle Down the Wind (JPAC), and Kennedy (Proscenium Productions). Previously, she was an Acting Apprentice with The Berkshire Theatre Group, where she was also in A Chorus Line. She is a graduate of Lewis & Clark College, with a B.A. in Theatre. Many thanks to GTG and to her wonderful, supportive family!

Aaron G. Stash (Salesman/Ewart Dunlop) – Aaron would like to thank the cast and crew of The Music Man for the ice cream, the sunrise and hoping you’re the same. He appeared as Rapunzel’s Prince in last year’s GTG production of Into the Woods and before that as Gaston in their production of Disney’s Beauty and the Beast. Other favorite roles include Sparky (Forever Plaid), Hysterium (A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum), Vice Principal Panch (The 25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee), Gabriel (Kiss of the Spider Woman) and Oscar (Sweet Charity). Thanks to Jenny, Cecily and Kai for letting him take the train to Iowa this summer.

Denise Tamburrino (Ethel Toffelmier) – I am happy to be making my debut with GTG and especially in this show. The Music Man is very close to my heart. As a young child, my mother and I sang these songs together all the time, and it truly was the beginning of my love for musical theater. I would like to dedicate this performance to my mother, who is always softly singing in my ear. Some Chicago credits include 9 to 5 The Musical (Center for the Arts), A New Brain (BPB Co), Death Takes a Holiday (Circle Theatre), The Boys Next Door (Metropolis), Fiddler of the Roof (Light Opera Works), and the 2012 multiple Jeff Award-winning production of The Light in the Piazza (Theo-Ubique). I am also the recipient of the 2013 BroadwayWorld Chicago award for Best Actress in a Musical for my portrayal of Grizabella in CATS (Highland Park Players). Many thanks to the production staff for this opportunity and as always to my Sweet Pea for his love and support.

Josh Ticho (Salesman/Ensemble) – Josh is speechless. He can’t believe this is his 9th time playing in The Music Man. He’s in what? He’s in what? He’s in The Music Man. If he gets to 10, he gets a band uniform with a big gold stripe and a baton. Josh is so happy to be back once again in River City, Iowa with his dear friends from Glenview Theatre Guild. He is especially grateful to be sharing the stage with his beautiful daughter, Abigail. He sends his love to Amy, Max and Laura.

Sheryl Morton (Set Decoration/Properties) – Sheryl is a “Jill” of many trades and is happily married to supportive and talented (he has been on this and other stages building and performing through the years!) husband Leo for 42 years! By day, she works as a professional organizer (Make It Happen) but her passion is still rooted in the creative end of live theatre – making it happen by decorating sets and procuring or making props for various theatre groups starting with GTG many years ago with their production of Brigadoon in 1993. Her efforts now include all the theatre productions during the school year at both Glenbrook South High School and Prospect High School. She also lends her touches to the yearly musical at Attea Jr. High in Glenview. She loves the challenge of helping the audience believe in the “magic” of theatre. She thanks her family and friends for understanding and supporting her crazy “world”. She is proud to be part of this talented production staff and hopes you enjoy our show.

Sally Norlie (Producer) – Sally returns for her 7th season with GTG and is loving the role of producer. Although she has performed in GTG shows she is enjoying being a part of the production staff. Working with this talented cast has been amazing. She wants to thank each and every one of them for their hard work! A big thank you goes out to the production staff for this wonderful adventure. The biggest thank you goes out to her family who allows her to spend so much time producing. She hopes you enjoy the show!

Roberto Puig (Wigs/Hair/Make-up) – This is Roberto’s 3rd production with GTG as Wigs, Hair, and Make-up Designer. Roberto works fulltime as a hair stylist/colorist at Nancy Angelair Salon. He’s been involved in show business since high school, appearing on stage, in films, and on television as a professional dancer, choreographer, singer, actor, hair & make-up design and, sometimes, all of the above in the same production! He looks forward to a long relationship with GTG…perhaps on the stage next time!

Janet Reich (Assistant Director) – Janet is in her fourth year serving as Assistant Director and is having a wonderful time working with Jason. Her first show on-stage with GTG was in 1987 and, after “catching the bug,” Janet then appeared in GTG’s next 12 productions. In 1998 she stepped off the stage and served as producer for GTG’s next 10 productions. While appearing with GTG in the early years, Janet was also seen on-stage in many productions with other theatre companies: Northshore Theatre, Children’s Theatre of Deerfield, Actors Theatre of Glencoe, and Northbrook Theatre. She also served behind the scenes in various back-stage capacities on the Northshore. Janet thanks everyone involved in The Music Man, including the extremely talented cast, staff, and crew. You are all amazing and I’m proud to be part of this wonderful production! Many thanks to family and friends for their love and support!!

Rich Winship (Set & Lighting Designer) – Rich returns for his 22nd GTG production as set and lighting designer – hard to believe he was only 11 years old for the first one. It’s been another successful year of productions at GBS, where his designs included the play, Harvey, the Variety Show, Synergy and the musical How To Succeed…. Once again Rich feels so lucky to be collaborating with his extremely talented friends; Tim, Perry, Joby and Sheryl. Special thanks to Alex Lugo for coordinating the construction of the set and, of course, to our amazing stage crew. No GBS show is possible without them – thank you all! All my love to Andrea. Thanks to JWL and JPM. “It is being, it is being.”

A BRIEF HISTORY OF GTG

The Glenview Theatre Guild (GTG) was founded in 1972 with the mission to offer Glenview and the surrounding communities a high quality, low cost exposure to theater. In addition, as a sponsored program of the Glenview Park District, GTG enables talented individuals from Glenview and throughout the Chicagoland area to share their gifts on stage. Each year we present a major musical production at Glenbrook South High School, although Glenbrook North High School is considered our second home. In both 2014 and 2015 we added a successful comedy play in the winter at a smaller venue. On an average, about 2,500 to 4,000 theatre patrons enjoy each years’ productions. The annual musical typically involves a cast of 40-50 singers, dancers, and actors from Glenview and the surrounding communities. In addition, we have a support staff of an additional 30-40 people (e.g., director, choreographer, music director, producer, costume designer, set designer, stage crew, etc.). A good portion of the individuals involved in the show volunteer their time and talents to bring quality, affordable entertainment to the community. The Glenview Theatre Guild fosters a sense of community among all persons involved in putting on a production. All the months of work really pay off when we present a professional, quality production to you, our audience!
